*A look at the present;
By tomorrow, at the past;
Yet until that far morrow
Let our hearts reminisce
The events—as they follow
Into future—happy bliss.*

The
1943 Milestone

*By the Senior Class of Plainfield
High School, Plainfield, New Jersey*

These are days calling for heroes and heroines. We know that those of our school fellowship, to whom we dedicate this record of accomplishments, are of the material from which such heroes spring. It is with confidence deep and true that we dedicate our faith to them, even as they have dedicated their honor and their very lives to their beloved country and for all mankind.

Our Dedication: To Men Of Action

Just a few of the many Plainfield High School students and teachers who left school to serve their favorite Uncle in his hour of need.

The End Of A Chapter . . .

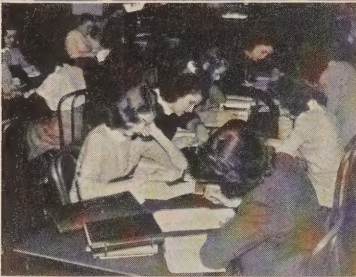

We have seen the end of two chapters in our life span. The first one was very short. We remember only the high spots of that part of life we now call childhood—birthday parties and our first train ride, the sea shore in the summer, and the sleighrides in winter. The second, those years in grammar school, brings to mind the school plays, the Hallowe'en pranks, Christmas caroling, and finally — graduation. We really thought we were quite grown up then, didn't we? Now we know differently.

We're approaching the end of the third, the most important one now. Whatever we remember of the past will seem insignificant compared to the memories of these four years of high school life.

Remembering "him" in the football games of our freshman year—at those sophomore swimming meets, putting a little something extra into "his" backstroke, 'cause "she" was there watching. Our first Junior prom in the eloquently, decorated gym, and so proud of our first "formals" and escorts. That unforgettable commencement that brought a lump to his throat and tears to her eyes.

But there were little things, too, such as getting a cut slip or seeing our name in the Entree linked with "that certain one." That swelling of pride in our hearts whenever we made the honor roll. The empty feeling in our stomachs because of that first "F." The excitement over the new schedules each term. The thrill of seeing our names on the prospective graduate list. Cutting a spring day to go on a picnic. The Junior and Senior plays, the pep rallies, the football dances, the class meetings, signing yearbooks, saying goodbye. All these things we must turn our backs to, for we have yet to live.

Someday, though, we can again look upon them. The tangible football schedules, yellow with age, play programs scribbled with comments, the crumpled remains of a corsage, the tarnished athletic awards, the yearbook, the intangible memories which we hold so dear. But just now, we must look ahead, for the future is more important than the past. And now we must simply call it "the end of a chapter."

Lest . . . We Forget!

"Welcome!"

MR. WALDRO J. KINDIG
Principal

*Merely A Parting
"So-Long"*

It has often been said how difficult it is for many people, especially students, to get accustomed to and fully acquainted with a new friend in one year. Since the very first meeting with our new principal, that statement lost all meaning, for Mr. Waldro Kindig has imbued with each and every student a common friendship, an inspiring atmosphere.

* * * * *

After graduating from Ohio State University, Mr. Kindig returned to his home town, Napoleon, Ohio, to teach. Later he taught in Delaware, Ohio; Cleveland, Ohio; Mt. Holly, New Jersey; and Brockton, Massachusetts. In 1935, he received his masters' degree at Columbia University. He succeeded Dr. Galen Jones as principal of Plainfield High School last September.

* * * * *

Only two of his many achievements this year have been leadership in the Victory Corps and tenor membership in the faculty "barber shop" chorus.

* * * * *

His first year in PHS is memorable, especially to the departing seniors who have found in him a most devoted and enthusiastic friend. He has set a fine example in saying: "There can be no freedom without responsibility, no liberty without self-discipline."

SENIORS:

"Never in the experience of mankind has there been so great a challenge placed before the youth of today. Seniors leaving our secondary schools are being asked to shoulder a great share of the burden of war and, at the same time, to create a vision of the kind of world we should like to live in after this conflict.

"Many of the classmates are now in the armed services. Others will enter those services in the summer; no one in the class will be untouched by the war effort or its effects.

"Let us then dedicate our energy, talent, and training to the prosecution of this war and to the reconstruction period of peace that will follow."

WALDRO J. KINDIG,
Principal

Mr. Kindig dictates to Miss Eleanor Mercuro,
Secretary.

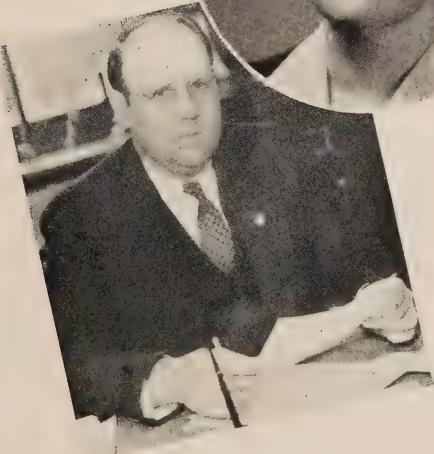

They Plan Our Future

MR. FREDERIC W. COOK

Mr. Cook, our superintendent of schools, is a visitor familiar to us all. He and his perplexing questions are always a welcome interruption to our classes. His thoughtful remarks are generally helpful and we are not likely to forget them soon.

MR. HENRY R. HUBBARD

Quietness, orderliness, and dependability are the well-known qualities of Mr. Henry R. Hubbard. His familiar figure is seen early and late about the school, bent upon some urgent business. We ask Mr. Hubbard to accept our affectionate regards and utmost respect, which he has won during his many years as vice-principal of PHS.

DEAN ELEANOR REPERT

Dean Reppert is a newcomer to PHS this year. Already she has shown us that she is essential here by the good work she is doing. The girls are especially grateful to Dean Reppert for the "motherly" advice and counseling she has given them this year.

DEAN GEORGE A. SMITH

Who is Dean Smith? Why, he is that jovial gentleman who always has a smile and a cheery "hello" for you. He will help you with your problems and give you some sound, "fatherly" advice. By the way, boys, the Dean believes there are no "bad boys" in this world.

A Parting Smile to a Grand Year

The first day we entered high school was a new Milestone for us. We were awed by the size of the buildings, the number of pupils, shy in the presence of the sophisticated seniors, thankful to the helpful juniors, annoyed by the arrogance of the sophomores, scared at the mention of the Dean's Office, but far too wise to fall for that "elevator gag." We elected Janet Hand and Kevin Fitzpatrick to lead our class through the pitfalls of freshman year.

None the worse for wear but far wiser in the ways of PHS, we entered our sophomore year. The much coveted "upper seats" in assembly were ours. We could look down with an air of indifference acquired by sophomores upon leaving the lowly ranks of the frosh. We elected for our class officers, Kevin Fitzpatrick, Ralph Jacobs, Bob Maguiness, and Helen Christensen.

Come junior year, we saw the final success in our struggle to have a Student Activity Ticket. We started off with a bang by electing Blaine Starkweather, Ralph Slonim, Bette Smith, and Ann Pederson as class officers. We presented not one—but two Junior Plays, "The Valiant," starring Bruce Bassett, Charlotte Kantor, Ed Yelle, and Abe Gerber, and the extremely funny farce, "Funny Business," with the hilarious Davy Kay, Russ Carpenter, Ken Kessler, Sara Hill, Marion Erickson, Bette Smith, and Ralph Jacobs.

To top off a year of activity and good times we had a "solid" Jr.-Sr. Prom with music by Gint Dexter's orchestra.

In September '42, we welcomed heartily our new principal, Mr. Waldro Kindig, a true friend and adviser. Together we have seen a lot of precedents set in PHS. We established a High School Victory Corps, the first organization of its kind in the history of the school. We replaced the outmoded Student Patrol with the Senior Honorary Society, an honored innovation, with Dick Kern as its first president.

Upon return from an extended five week winter vacation, with our class officers, Blaine Starkweather, Bill Brown, Elsa Thielhart, and Gloria Ashton, we decided that senior plays were a thing of the past. By Spring those of us who hadn't fallen by the wayside or joined Uncle Sam's forces were here to graduate. Our "Prom" topped last year's in spite of the rationings.

Our lives in PHS have been like music. For some that music has been as sweet as that which emanate from Glenn Miller's Sax Section, for others it has been as tough (to graduate) as the "rides" that Benny Goodman takes, but for most of us it has been as "solid" as Harry James.

Top Row:

WILLIAM ABEL

"Sailing, sailing" is what Bill will soon be singing as he plans to enter the U. S. Navy. Aside from that just give him a stream to relax beside and he'll be happy; but please—no girls in slacks!

ALFRED H. AITKEN

Well "Twirl my turban, man alive," here comes Al with a line of Jive! Aside from Hi-Y he plays clarinet and sax in Gint Dexter's Orchestra and has been with the PHS Band too. He left us for the Marines.

BETTY ALLEN

Photography is Betty's hobby. As a career after high school she plans to enter the nursing profession. People who talk too much annoy her most.

EDITHE L. ALSTON

Edy intends to make sewing her profession and is greatly interested in singing and dancing. She has been an active member in the Student Council, Girl's Leaders Club and the basketball squad.

ADOLF ANDREASEN

Ade is entering the printing profession upon graduation. Believe it or not, his fondest memories of PHS were in his freshman year! Swimming, sports, "jump music," and ice skating all go to make life happier for "Ade."

Middle Row:

JOYCE CLAIR APGAR

"Holy mackerel!" There goes Joyce into another acrobatic dance. In Friendship, Pep, and Football Clubs at PHS. She likes airplanes and dislikes crabby people. She's also been a member of Hi-Tri and "Forget-Me-Not" Club.

JOSEPH J. APISA

Girls putting make-up on in class annoy Joe, but being comfortable after a good meal makes up for it. As a freshman he couldn't get over the immensity of PHS. It's the work of a lathe operator or an auto mechanic for Joe.

GLORIA ASHTON

Our senior class secretary, Gloria also likes tap dancing and was in the Senior Honorary Society. She'll prepare for her career as a secretary in a secretarial school.

CLAYTON E. BAER

Active in senior ushers, senior band and orchestra, playing first flute and piccolo, Professor's hobbies are music naturally, and photography. He is interested in a Civil Service position; favorite expression is "mellow!"

GERTRUDE LOUISE BAILEY

Nursing is Gert's choice as a profession because helping the suffering humanity gives her the most enjoyment in life. Hi-Tri Knitting Club and Old Testament Club were the activities she joined.

Bottom Row:

JANET GRACE BAREFORD

Busy is the word for Jan with Motet and A Cappella Choirs, Leaders' Club, Usher Squad, Senior Honorary Society, and Typing Club. She participated in Hi-Tri and "Gay Teens" Clubs, skating and bowling outside of school.

JEAN BARRETT

Jean was a member of Student Council, junior and senior executive councils, archery, King's Daughters, and Hi-Tri secretary as a freshman. Skidmore College is her hope after graduation.

MARY IRENE BARTHOLOMEW

Student Council, ushers, friendship committee, Leaders' Club, Senior Honorary Society, hockey, Junior Red Cross, King's Daughters, Hi-Tri, and one of the "14" comprise Mule's activities. She wants to be a business career woman and enjoys social life.

BRUCE BASSETT

Playing traps relaxes Bruce's nerves. This amiable fellow had remembered a Senior Leaders' Dance in his junior year; he remembers his work in the Junior PHS. Bruce was a cheerleader, Dramatic Club Member and a cheerleader.

DOLORES BATES

To be a business woman, that's Del's ambition. She enjoys reading and swimming, was active in A Cappella Choir, treasurer of Student Council, and Usher. A member of Hi-Tri, King's Daughters, and Lignernots, she says "Oh, brother!" and enjoys being with people most.

Top Row:

ROBERT J. BEAUMONT

Air Corps upon graduation, bowling, basketball, baseball, boxing and keeping his car in A-1 (not 1-A) condition are Bob's interests. He was in the Defense Stamp Club, and enjoyed three years of Math with a "swell" teacher.

STANLEY BIELAWSKI

Stan left us in March for the Navy. After it's over he's coming home and take up where he left off in the drafting career.

GEORGE CYRUS BILYEAU

"Whatcha' know?" asks George of the De Molay and Glee Club, also a home room representative to the Executive Council. Although he doesn't like written homework, he does go in for engineering and drafting, his choice for careers.

ANNA MAE BLACKNALL

But this girl will be on "pins and needles" after she leaves good old PHS. Why? Well, Anna is so fond of sewing she's decided to become a tailor. There are no priorities on needles!

JOSEPH ARTHUR BOGUSKI

Joe's a boxer, who likes sports in general, reading. He recalls the times that he had no homework as elegant nights. Not sure of his prospective profession, but noisy study hall occupants annoy him . . .

Middle Row:

ROLAND BONORDEN

Row's a member of the Army Ski-Troopers now, but he hopes to do ornithological research with the American Museum of Natural History; a serious fellow fond of Biology, marksmanship, skiing and football, he receives the most enjoyment from studying natural history.

ALICE MARIE BOST

Here's a girl who likes swimming, knitting, ice-skating, her Hi-Tri and typing club memberships. In Alice's words, "Sloppy, insincere, and loud people annoy me."

HELEN M. BOWLBY

Helen, who is quite at home on roller skates, has chosen the nursing field as her profession. For practice she took part in the Child Psychology Club. Noisy study halls give her least pleasure.

MARY BRACO

Our Brac is shy and silent, but she does like dancing 'cause she meets so many different people. Soph year remains in this future beautician's memory, as she goes around saying, "You don't say so!"

ROBERT J. BRADLEY

It's the outdoor life for Bob! His favorite hobby and chief interest lie in sports—especially baseball, fishing, camping and hunting. Make room for him in those wide, open spaces.

Bottom Row:

RUTH V. BRADSHAW

Ruth, who definitely favors twirling and sports, is answering her family's call to the nursing field. She went out for badminton and hockey, as well as participating in the Student Council, Hi-Tri and Pep Club.

JEAN BRANDT

Jean doesn't have much to say, but she was immensely interested in magic and was in that club.

BARBARA JEAN BRITTON

A member of the Victory Corps, Junior Red Cross, Executive Board, Senior Honorary Society, Home Room Chairman and Usher Squad, Barbara has also proven her talent in music. People and life in general provide most enjoyment for Be.

BALBINA BROKAW

Bal adores dancing, ice-skating, swimming, golf, and tennis and dislikes tardy people. On the Freshman Library Council, "Bal" also worked on the switchboard and hopes to become a private secretary. She cherishes her first date and many PHS acquaintances.

DORIS BROKAW

Dor intends to go in for Navy Nursing. The thought that some day she'll be able to help people adds to the natural enjoyment of her active life. She participated in A Cappella and Motet Choirs and the Music Appreciation Club.

Top Row:

ALICE M. BROWN

Al's preparing for college. Captain of Freshman Archery, member of Senior Executive Council, Hi-Tri four years and King's Daughters consist of her outside school activities. Catty people annoy her. She'll always remember the Library Park and Harry James.

BERNICE LEONARD BROWN

Bernice belonged to the Archery, World Friendship and Hi-Tri Clubs, also enjoyed being an Air Raid Warden and doing file practice. Her ambition is to become a Navy Surgical Nurse. Funniest memories of PHS are biology and chemistry classes.

FLORENCE A. BROWN

"Fiddlesticks!" sighs Florence half audibly, as someone else calls her Shorty, her pet peeve. She was vice-president of the Library Council in her junior year, her most important activity. She likes dancing . . . wants to be a secretary.

WILLIAM BROWN

Bill's heading for an eight month course after graduation, sponsored by the Navy Air Corps of which he is in the A classification. Hi-Y, cross country, pole vaulting, senior vice-president, Student Council and Honorary Society were his activities.

IRWIN L. BUSSEL

Here we have our esteemed editor-in-chief, otherwise known as "Bus," who is vexed at "unconscious objectors." Senior Honorary Society, Creative Writing, Entree, Student Council, and of course "The Milestone," head our future journalist's list.

Middle Row:

EVA MAY CAMPBELL

Sunshine wants to be a field worker for the 4-H Club after taking Civil Service exams and a Home Economics Course at Maryville College. She was active in A Cappella Choir, Senior orchestra, Old Testament Club, and badminton, and enjoys sailing.

ERNEST CARLOMANGO

Ernie hails from North Plainfield, but we forgive him 'cause he made a swell name for himself. He's a star in basketball and football and that's not hay! His hopes are in the coaching field.

THOMAS A. CARTER

Tom's out for patrol, orchestra, boxing, and swimming, but his favorite is bowling. His plans are for mechanics.

RUSSEL WILLIAM CARPENTER, Jr.

Russ and dramatics go hand-in-hand. His fondest memory was winning the Declamation Contest. His track, Junior and Senior Band, Junior Play all help make life worth living. He wishes to become a priest.

MABEL CASE

Casey hates "too much homework," but when it comes to photography, hiking and ice-skating, she's right there. She also enjoys archery and tennis. Her aim is to become a first rate laboratory assistant.

Bottom Row:

PAT CECERE

Mickey says that movies, baseball, football games, and pigeon raising, rate high with him. But as for seeing girls "show off"—that's out! He intends to become a machinist to keep 'em rolling!

SOLOMON CHARLOFF

Sol is a photographer at heart, although he likes ping-pong and singing too. He's our own contribution to the medical profession as a surgeon.

MARY LOUISE CHIROLIANE

"Ye Gods! Who'd-a-thunk it!" as Mary Lou adds another nick-nack to her collection. She has been active in dramatics and as a homeroom chairman. She intends to be a future buyer . . . enjoys making new friends and keeping old ones.

HELEN CHRISTENSEN

As president of Senior Hi-Tri, Chris proved her popularity and executive ability. An expert knitter, she is also in King's Daughters, Student Council, Senior Honorary Society and Dramatic Club. Winner of the D.A.R. award, Chris' plans are for college.

RICHARD LAWRENCE CHRISTMAS

Another busy boy was Dick Xmas, who was in the Math and Sketch Clubs. He particularly enjoys drawing, photography and going different places to see different things, and fondly remembers his freshman year.

Top Row:

JOHN M. CIUFO
What's he know, huh?
 Future machinist. Chub is sports-minded with football and freshman basketball leading. He enjoyed most the PHS vs. NPHS football games . . . likes offening and model building much better than girls' makeup or in school!

ARTHUR LOUIS COLTRI
 "What's buzzin', cuzin?" Plenty if you're talking to Hap. He really was busy in high school, building model airplanes, saving stamps, and preparing to be a machinist or draftsman, among other things. His pet peeve—extemporaneous speeches.

HAROLD CONN
 Our future doctor, a first rate swimmer on the Varsity Swimming Team, Hal is fond of Broadway shows. First place in the "100" wash, as a frosh is his unforgettable feat.

OWEN J. COOK
 This Cook likes to collect guns, old or new. B football team member, swimmer in freshman year, Owen likes gymnastics and days beginning vacation. He was in Junior Leaders' Club.

MARY JANE CONOVER
Mary Jane's individual in wanting to be a medical secretary. She was active in Freshman, Senior Library Council, Senior Band, Usher's Squad, Leaders' Club, Senior Honorary Society, Junior Red Cross, Hi-Tri, King's Daughters, Knitting Club and "1 of 14."

Middle Row:

MICHAEL A. CORTEZ
 Active in sports, Shortie, a member of the Student Council, Football Club and Projection Squad is undecided about being a gas station attendant or a sailor. "Well, all right," he shouts—but not when girls fiddle with their hair.

MIRIAM L. COWLEY
 Interests? Everything, says Peanuts, but especially journalism, judging by her excellent work on the Entree, exchange editor, secretary and filing clerk, feature editor, and Milestone literary editor. Mim can't forget the grand bunch in the Entree office.

JEFFERSON CRAIG
Jeff likes tennis and was varsity captain in his third year. He was a member of our Student Council. Jeff is training for business, and, while very quiet, he is ambitious.

MARJORIE L. CRAIG
Marj was in the Glee Club. Here's another candidate to the nursing field.

MARGARET CRONIN
Margaret should make an A-1 college student, considering her interest in many activities and her congenial nature. We'll remember her from dances, "Follies of '40," Milestone work, tennis, ushering and 7th Period study.

Bottom Row:

YETTA CROWETZ
Babe has been a member of the Camera, Child Psychology, and Leaders' Club, badminton, and swimming. All sorts of sports interest her. Nursing is her choice of profession.

LEONARD J. CUMMINGS
 "Take it, Jackson." Here's Len, a member of The De Molay, Math Club, and band. Give him the wide open spaces, for swimming, fishing and camping, where boys don't say "cute" and girls don't use gooey words. It's accounting for him.

JAMES T. CURRAN
Jay violently dislikes silly girls and heartily enjoys aviation, as he wants to be an aviation machinist in the U. S. Navy. He was a patrol captain, was in the Pep Club, participated in intramural basketball.

JOSEPH E. CURRAN
 Among many activities on Jackie's list are Cross Country and Track Teams, Milestone Staff, Cheer Leading, and Student Council. He likes horseback riding, ice-skating, baseball, football, basketball, and hunting, but wants to become an accountant.

MARIE CUSMANO
 Conceited people and homework are Cusy's peeves. Listening to her favorite band leaders, swimming and dancing, provide ample entertainment. Making new acquaintances endears PHS to her.

Best of Everything

Top Row:

SYLVIA D'AGOSTINO

"Oh, to be a fashion designer."—that is Sylvia's desire. She is fond of drawing. The day she made the high honor roll is the most memorable in her high school days. Vacation, too, rates high.

MARJORIE DALY

Peggy seems to enjoy everything except loud noisy people. Particularly likes badminton, singing, and tennis and was in A Cappella and Motet Choirs, Pep Club, Hi-Tri Cabinet, Victory Corps and on Student Council.

WEBSTER DAWLEY

Web belonged to the Biology Club. His hobby is model railroading and he enjoys music, a good sports, and good spirit. Web's ambition is to be a Mechanical Engineer. He dislikes people who criticize sneeringly.

LUCILLE A. DeLISLE

Twirling, swimming and sailing are Lou's hobbies. Medicine is her idea of the right profession. Pep Club and Hi-Tri were her activities.

DONATO DELL'OLIO

Dell enjoys loafing, but there'll be some changes made when he joins the sophomore basketball and bowling. Navy. He went out for freshman and Quizzically he asks, "Are you kidding?"

Middle Row:

FRED DENNICK

Fred likes to play the guitar and went out for art, Glee Club, basketball, and likes airplanes. He plans to join the Army Air Corps.

KATHERINE M. DENNY

Jump has been a loyal member of the Lost and Found Club, likes to knit and, true to her name, is athletic. She plans to do secretarial work. She'll overlook a few faults from anyone if he likes Tommy Dorsey.

ARTHUR T. DEXTER

Jake, and everyone else remembers his scoring a touchdown against NPHS. He found so much pleasure in eating that he joined the Boy's Cooking Club, but he'd better watch his figure if he expects to study physical culture.

FRANK ANTHONY DICELLIS

Roller skating is tops according to Timie. He plans to be a machinist. Don't put on make-up in class, girls, when he's around.

GLORIA K. DIGGS

Kay hails from the good old state of Indiana. It's the clerical field for her.

Bottom Row:

HENRY DONNELLY

Bub is a camera fiend, as we can see by his membership in the Camera Club as vice president. He's an ambitious boy, eager to get ahead and ready to start as a machinist.

ANNA J. DOWNING

Sports came first on Jimmie's list. She participated in basketball and baseball. Her fondness for little children proves she's a good Sunday School teacher. She wishes to become a nurse or social service worker.

MARILYN L. DOW

Among Polly's extra-curricular activities have been Student Council, Band, Archery, Child Psychology Club, Hi-Tri and Kings' Daughters. Dancing, ice-skating, and just being alive give Marilyn, a prospective kindergarten teacher, the most enjoyment. Her favorite expression, "Oh, Well!"

CATHERINE DUBREY

Catherine Dubrey
Likes a variety of games, especially Kitz version of dominoes. She interests center around dancing and swimming. Defense work will claim her after graduation.

DONALD DURRAH

Don's interest for the past four years has centered around photography and printing. As a doctor's son he might follow in his father's footsteps. His friendly "Hello" has made him well-known throughout PHS.

Top Row:

DORIS C. DURRAH

Doris is interested in medicine and in social work. Gum chewing in public bothers her. She is a member of the Honorary Society, and tennis is her hobby.

DOROTHY DZIEGLEWICZ

"No kidding, big teasers really get my goat" mutters Dotty, a former member of the Typing Club and freshman homeroom secretary. "A certain basketball player" is her fondest memory of PHS; roller skating, collecting snapshots, and corresponding make life great for this future secretary!

FLORENCE EISENBERG

"Is it hot enough for you today?" asks Florrie, very much unconsciously. Florrie belongs to the Jans, likes dancing, hopes to become a fashion illustrator, was a twirler and in the Leaders Club.

WILLIAM WARREN ELLIS, Jr.

Bill, the SAT chairman, treasurer of Student Council, member of Varsity Track team, Dramatic Society, finance board, and Senior Honorary Society, was kept pretty busy, but still found time to read. He enrolled at Princeton before joining the army.

MARY THERESA ENRIGHT

"Shucks," dancing to Tommy Dorsey's orchestra gives Maureen as much fun as bowling, horseback riding, and roller skating. The Knitting Club, basketball, field hockey, and office practice took her school time . . . a future clever secretary.

Middle Row:

ARTHUR G. ERBER

To be a machinist and then to join the U. S. Navy are Jerry's ambitions. He likes football and skating and says freshman year's his fondest PHS memory. Also on projection squad, he yells "You Girls," enjoys having a good time and a nice girl.

MARION ERICKSON

With "Jeeps" as her pet expression, Marion is a member of the Junior Play, as her fondest memory. Marion has the halls of PHS hoping to become a nurse. She was active in Hi-Tri, Dramatic Society, archery, and Girls' Chorus.

WILLIAM O. EVANS

Bill is another one who won't talk." Of all the professions a boy can choose, he's all for engineering — there's plenty of room for advancement.

ROBERT S. FELDMAN

"Tall, dark, and handsome" is all that's needed to describe this future doctor. Bob's activities include Library Council, Band, International Relations Club, Student Council, and Milestone Staff.

GERALDINE J. FERRA

The companionship of dogs gives Gerry much enjoyment. She plans to enter the nursing field, likes to knit, and so belongs to that club. One of Gerry's hobbies is writing letters, wonder just what that means? She enjoys the YWCA and M.Y.F. Clubs outside of school.

Bottom Row:

FRANK FERRARO

A man after your own heart is Ace, 'cause he likes going out, having fun, and moonlight horseback riding . . . definitely dislikes silly girls. The memory of his first junior prom lingers on. He's out for a machinist position.

Handwritten note: "One of the future good. Don't like money."

ARTHUR G. FITZPATRICK

The briny deep certainly has a powerful attraction for this male, for sailing is one of Art's pastimes, not to mention radio. He participated in the senior usher squad . . . dislikes snobs. Future? The radio engineering profession.

KEVIN D. FITZPATRICK

Fitz is partial to horses and politics. Student Council, president of the sophomore class, and SAT committee head his activities. Fitz is one of the six PHS boys in the Navy Air Corps under the V-5 program.

PAUL WILLIAM FLAGG

Pablo played baseball, jayvee and varsity football, was in Student Council, Senior Executive Council, Biology, Stamp, and Camera Clubs, a homeroom chairman, on Entree; likes photography, autograph collecting, Harry James orchestra, and canoeing. Someday it'll be "Dr. Flagg, M.D."

Top Row:

JOSEPH FLEISCHMAN

Shorty participated in sports, clubs, and dramatics, contributing time as advertising manager of Entree. He enjoys stamp collecting and building model airplanes. A member of the Youth Zionist Organization and the Boy's Athletic Association, he "Ah, mule's" at gigglers.

JAMES M. FOLK

Jim, on the Varsity Track Team and Swimming Club, likes sports, particularly bowling and takes joy in swing music because "it takes away all my school worries." He looks forward to the day when he will take up a amehinist's trade.

JANET D. FREEDMAN

"So help her." Jen's pet peeve is a man who talks too much. A member of the Typing Club and Thrift Council she hopes to become a secretary. She enjoys collecting famous band pictures.

EVELYN GRACE FRITZ

Fritzie spent two years at Bayonne High. Music charms her but she hopes to attend a Business College. Being called a freshman because of her shortness bothers her. "The boyfriend" rates high in her school life.

LEE R. GALVIN

Bob is interested in Aviation as are most boys, but engineering rates first. He plans to further all knowledge in Georgia Tech, so we-all wish him a happy time!

Middle Row:

KATHLEEN GANNON

Kathie has been on the Library Council, Milestone, and Entree staffs. Forget-me-not's, her club is an appropriate name if she's any example. Kathie wants to be a secretary.

ABRAHAM GERBER

Buddy looks forward to law, as a career, enjoyed music, reading, and Miss Bond's P.A.D. class. His list of activities includes band, Press Club, Swing Band, Senior Honorary Society, Junior Play, Dramatic Society, Milestone Business Manager, Forum Club and Masada.

EMANUEL GERMINSKY

Jerry, who enjoys "cruising around" in his speedboat, is preparing for a career as an electrical contractor especially in the fields of air conditioning and refrigeration. He was in Senior Band, Model Airplane Club, and Camera Club.

JOY GIDDING

Personality plus, that's Joyous. Senior Honorary Society, Junior Red Cross Executive Council, Milestone, Usher, Tennis, Music Appreciation Club, Typing Club, and G.A.A. are just a few of her activities. She's planning for either architecture or social service.

DOROTHEA JOAN GINDER

"Murder!" she says at smart Alecks and disorderly classes. It the wide open space for Gimill, swimming, driving, dancing. As a homeroom secretary, associate editor of Milestone, member of Hi-Tri, hockey, and swimming team she was piled high with work.

Bottom Row:

SHIRLEY GINDOFF

Shirley has been in Library Council, Leaders, and the Program club. She wants to teach grammar school. Knitting is her hobby. Old posters annoy her; she cherishes last year's football team.

RUTH MARIE GLADDEN

Could there be another Anne Lindbergh in our Ruthie? Secretary to the Student Council and freshman class treasurer, Knitting Club, Hi-Tri, and King's Daughters, she still finds time to listen to Harry James, dance, and read.

LAWRENCE A. GLEASON

"Quien sabe?" asks Iggy. We all know that he's been a mighty lad during his high school life. Among his activities are football, swimming manager, Science Club, Chess Club, and Senior Honorary Society. He's mainly interested in engineering.

LOUISE RACHEL GLENN

It's "root in there," says Glennie and we guess she means teaching physical education cause that's what she's headed for. She's participated in basketball, baseball, and hockey. She hates gossiping that leads to trouble.

BERNARD GOLDBERG

Take Bernie's word for it, the 21 club is a lot of fun. Upon graduation Bernie hopes to become an aeronautical draftsman.

Top Row:

ADELAIDE GOULD

"Beware of the silent type," they say, but we don't think Adelaide is hiding anything. Her only eccentricity is "Gee whizz." But, maybe the less said, the better. A future secretary!

GEORGE S. GOULD, Jr.

George doesn't say much about himself except getting out at 3:30 gives him the most pleasure. We know, however, that he is especially interested in drawing and intends to become a machinist.

BERTHA GOVLICK

Puzzles don't puzzle Bert 'cause she makes 'em along with fishing. She was a member of the pep club, too! Her future deals with stenography and typing.

MILTON GRANT

"It won't hurt much," says your dentist, Milt, ten years from now. Milt was vice-president of Freshman Library Council, president of Magic Club, commando trainee and Hi-Y member. Magic, model railroads, and especially eating popcorn formed his favorite pastimes!

ELSIE L. GREGORY

Greg seems to be pretty fond of music. She belongs to the girls' chorus, and popular bands "simply send her!" She plans to be a secretary. Movies and knitting are other interests. Her pet expression is "hmmm."

Middle Row:

LILLIAN GRILLO

Aggie collects snapshots, photocards, and records. She thinks that being out-of-doors is "solid." She has belonged to the basketball club and the Cashiers Club, and hopes to become a stenographer.

DORIS L. GUNDERSON

Dais is noted for her singing with Gint Dexter. Active as frosh class secretary, in Hi-Tri, Student Council, Swing Band, and A Cappella Choir, she also enjoys horseback riding and dancing. Dais enjoys meeting people and doing different things.

CLAUDIA LOUISE HAHN

Preparing for a career as a nurse, "Chicken" kept busy by participating in the basketball club, knitting club, and hockey. She likes all sports, is an Air Raid Warden and photographer . . . particularly enjoys "pleasure."

JEAN ELIZABETH HALLARD

"Are you sure?" asks Jean, a mighty careful lass, who looks before she leaps. Although undecided as to a career, Jean does know that she hates to waste time by waiting for people.

DONALD HALL

Bud has only been here a short time as a transfer from Bound Brook High. His fondest memory is of the friendship of his classmates. He enjoys the out-of-doors, and meeting people.

Bottom Row:

DORIS MARIE HARDGROVE

Another all-around sport is Dar with basketball, baseball, apparatus, in addition to skating, dancing, and bowling at the head of her list. Dates (you know the kind) and Mr. Strub's English class give some pleasant memories to the future office worker.

CHARLES WARREN HARRIS

Chuck is quite an athlete, especially in boxing, wrestling, track, and swimming. He was on the cross-country and varsity track teams. He was also a drummer in the school band and belonged to the Glee Club. He hopes to become a dentist.

JAMES J. HARVAN

A typical American boy, Jim likes basketball and drawing, wants to join the Army Air Corps and enjoys the same thing most fellows enjoy in life. He will always remember Miss Michalska's PAD class.

CATHERINE MARY ANN HEIDELBERG

Kay considers friendships pretty fine things. Student Council representative, Leaders and Knitting Club member, Pep Club president, homeroom chairman—her activities. Kay wants to be a kindergarten teacher.

JEAN LOUISE HERTWIG

Jeannie belonged to the Library, Student and Thrift Council, Ushering Squad, and Archery, Knitting and Leaders Clubs. She also participated in Hi-Tri and Gay-Teens. Jeannie plans to be a teacher or a social service worker.

Top Row:

SARA HILL

Sara, one of our most attractive seniors, aspires to an operatic career. She has taken part in the Dramatic Club, usher squad, A Cappella Choir and the Thrift Council. Sara isn't the annoyed type . . . loves dancing.

JOSEPH R. HIMELSTEIN

Joe is a ping-pong champ and a member of the Forum Club. His hobby is collecting all kinds of records. Joe likes the "21" Club as "it brings the fellows together."

RUTH N. HOBSON

Rue hopes to become a nurse. Her pet peeves—gossipy people, spiders and worms. She loves to knit or dance and has belonged to the Glee Club, tennis and hockey teams.

MARY HOCKO

"Jeepers creepers!" exclaims this Glenn Miller fan. Active in—hockey, archery, badminton, ice-skating and swimming, basketball, Hoc enjoys vacations far from home and football games. Working in an office is her chief ambition.

ROBERT GORDON HODDESON

Is there a doctor in the house? There will be when Bob finishes training. In the meantime he kept his fingers limber by playing the piano in a dance band. Served on the Milestone and Ensign staff as a photographer.

Middle Row:

JAMES L. HODGDON

Jim's interest in all sciences is proven by his choice of career as a chemical engineer. Doing something new and succeeding at it, gives him much enjoyment. Jim thinks that this school grind is tough.

FRANCES HODGE

Tennis, Art Club, Typing Club, student patrol, "Follies of '40," and archery are the activities that kept Fran busy. She finds dancing gives her the most enjoyment in life. It's a nursing career for her.

SEYMOUR HOLLANDER

Any girl's dream is Caesar, who can cook. Intramural basketball is listed among his activities, too. The "21 Club" takes up any spare time!

YULA ALDERMAN HYLAND

Yula is one of '43's all around girls. She was an archery captain, president of the Archery Club and belonged to Girl Leaders' Club, member of the Senior Executive board, Hi-Tri and chairman of the orchestra, she plans to be a secretary.

EDITH O. INDICO

"You'll get over that" soothes Edie. Active in baseball, basketball apparatus, and Leaders' Club you can see she likes sports, particularly roller skating. She'll always remember: exemption from a history exam in her sophomore year. Future—a secretary.

Bottom Row:

WILLIMAE INGRAM

Willie was a member of the Library Council and the Glee Club. She wants to be a secretary, so here's luck.

MILDRED EVELYN ISAACSON

Commercials on radio programs and teachers who won't listen to an explanation are 'way down in Milly's opinion. Art Club, badminton, dancing, and popular music are at the top. Milly plans to take up secretarial work.

ANTHONY M. IZZO

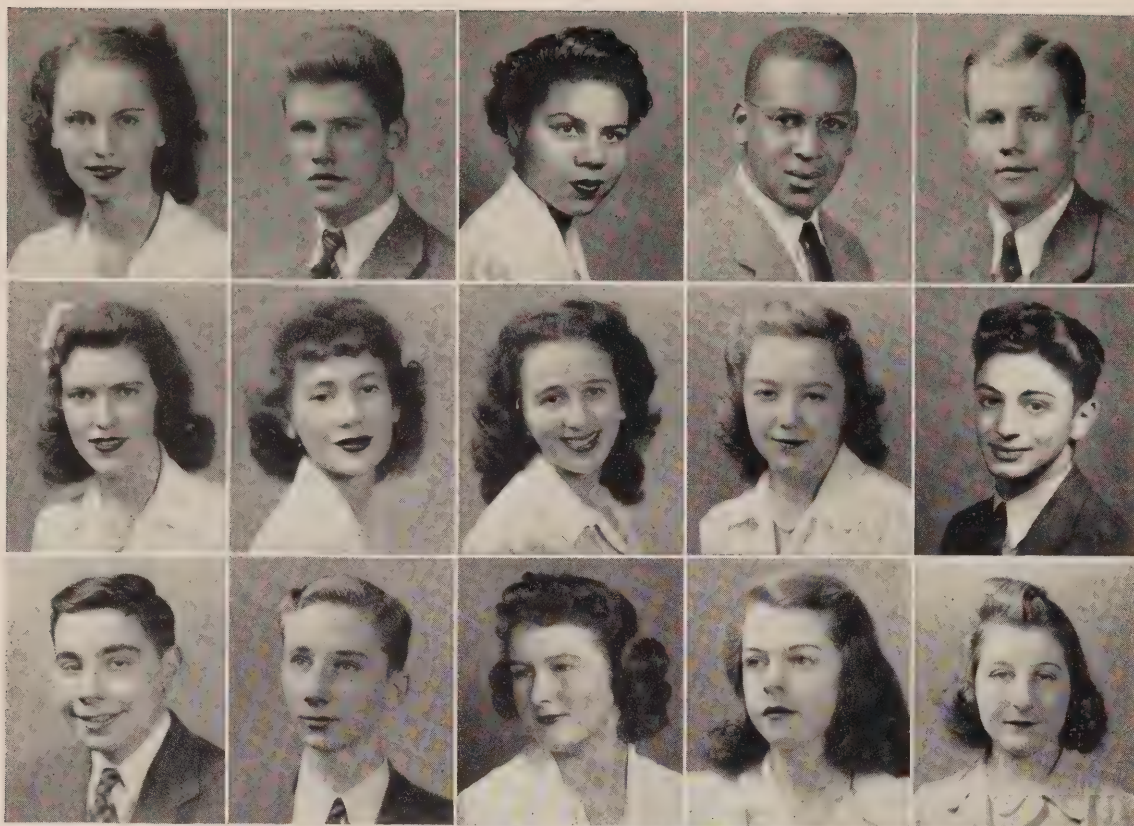

"Get smart ole man," says Iz, whether to himself or someone else, is still a puzzle. Intramural basketball and softball and Football Club comprised Iz's sports activities. Machinist to be, he enjoys having a solid time.

RALPH WILLIAM JACOBS

"You can't win if you don't try," believes Jake. Active in Student Council, Dramatic Club, Junior play, Declaration Contests, Hi-Y, Chess Club, and Tennis, he's interested in acting or business career. Also he likes girls, movies and puzzles.

VELMA JACOBS

Blondie's big aim in life is to be a nurse. She adores roller skating, knittin' for Britain and dates. She has played basketball and belongs to Hi-Y, and likes to say, "Don't get nosy, bub."

Top Row:

LIANE JAEGER

Lee can't quite decide whether she'll be a telephone operator or secretary. Mysteries, swimming, and fishing occupy most of her free time. She likes to say, "Oh yeah?"

ROBERT T. JENSEN

Teachers with their gay "90" ideas played Bob, now in active Navy duty. He was active in football, Jayvee and varsity, enjoyed auto racing, all sports and Harry James and his band. Fondest memory was playing against NPHS twice.

MARGARET JOHNSON

Margaret went out for Hi-Tri and was a member of the Knitting Club. Her future is the social service career.

HARVEY L. JUDKINS

Harvey, a member of the Glee Club, participated in the Junior play and band. His hobbies number swimming, dancing, and reading. His ambition is to become a mortician or mechanic. He dislikes silly girls.

JOSEPH GUY JUENEMANN, Jr.

Just one of the millions who say "Are you kidding?" Guy's interested in sports, especially archery. The future scientist won't forget our 19-0 victory over NPHS one year or those who borrow and don't pay back.

Middle Row:

GRACE M. KANE

Another Hi-Tri lover, Irish also patronized basketball, knitting, and Pep Club besides presiding as homeroom and PAD chairman. Of course, she loves dancing and reading. Her future is the secretarial field.

CHARLOTTE S. KANTOR

Shush is going to a dramatics school. She also loves dancing, music and tennis. A member of Jans Club, Pep Club and Dramatic Society, she's always saying "Are you kidding?"

DORIS KAPLAN

Kappie wishes to be a doctor's steno. Her hobbies are dancing and swimming and she belongs to the Jans Club, Pep Club, Typing Club, Milestone, Leaders Club, Student Council and Hi-Tri—her activities.

EDITH KAPPMAYER

Edith was right "in there" with archery and tennis heading her list and Leaders' Club next. She's planning to teach kindergarten; it's all hers.

DAVID RAPHAEL KAPRALIK

Dramatics, especially appearing before the "Mike" rate first among Dave's interests, as his ultimate goal is radio announcing. A member of the Dramatic Society he participated in the Junior Play, striving to perfect his speech.

Bottom Row:

CHARLES KATZ

Need your old bike reconditioned? Charlie can help you. He was a member of the stamp and bicycle clubs, likes fishing and airplanes and is interested in Dentistry. He's a member of the Social Club; dislikes one girl combing another girl's hair.

HAROLD KEARSLEY, Jr.

The R.A.F.'s the goal of Dutch, who hates breaking up when going steady. He belonged to Junior Leaders, and Senior Honorary Society, was homeroom president and vice-president, chaplain of Junior Leaders', and treasurer of XOM.

JANE C. KELLBERG

"I'm taking up merchandising in Junior College after PHS," writes Janie. A Cappella and Motet Choirs, tennis, hockey, Senior Honorary Society, homeroom secretary, Hi-Tri and King's Daughters were on her active roster. She likes knitting, singing, dancing.

JEANNE KELLEY

Jeanie desires nursing for her life's work. She was in the Pep Club, chairman of the Knitting Club and secretary of XOM and Founders.

PATRICIA MARGARET KELLY

Not even one cut-shed! That's Pat's record. She was a member of Archery Club, patrol, tennis, and Typing Club. Plans to enter nursing after graduation.

Top Row:

PETER ANDREW KELLY, Jr.
Pete's peeved 'cause he isn't old enough for armed service but he'll fight on the home front doing defense work. This photography-fiend was a member of the stamp club.

J. RICHARD KERN
Dick is one of our outstanding seniors and one of our best football players. He was also on the baseball team, Vice-president of the Student Council, President of Senior Honorary Society and homeroom chairman. Snobbish people annoy him. Dick expects to enter engineering work.

KENNETH C. KESSLER
"Holy Cow!" here comes Ace. Student Council, Varsity and J. V. basketball manager, Senior Band, J. V. baseball, Projection Squad, Cheer Leader, homeroom chairman, president of Boys' Athletic Association . . . architecture or the Air Corps. is his future.

CHARLOTTE E. KIRCHER
"Molder Dem Bums!" says Honey, an ardent Brooklyn Dodger fan. She likes to travel to see how others live and collects match covers. It's a ranch in Wyoming for this former member of the Stamp and Program Clubs, orchestra and Entree staff!

JEAN FRANCES KIRCH
Nursing will surely give Jean a swell chance to do the thing that gives her the most enjoyment—making other people happy. Knitting club, World-friendship Club, Junior Red Cross and Milestone—her activities.

Middle Row:

JEANNE MARY KIRKPATRICK
Kirk is going to teach for a living. She likes dancing, roller skating, and playing the piano. She belongs to Hi-Tri, Leaders' Club, and Girls Chorus. She enjoys tennis and archery, but can't bear two-faced people. Her pet expression: "My good!"

EDITH A. KUTLER
"Hey, you!" says Edith. She was active in ushers, Biology club, and Red Cross. Her favorite hobby is collecting records. College is her aim . . . belonged to the K. K. B. Club, Hi-Tri, and King's Daughters . . . enjoys being with friends.

LYDIA E. KLEIN
L.E.K. was a member of the Student Council, Hi-Tri, Pep Club, Senior Honorary Society, King's Daughters, and Secretary and program chairman of her home room. Lydia's fondest memory is the swell friends that she has made. She plans to attend college for merchandising study.

ELEANORE KOLENSKI
Something Eleanore will probably never forget is her first day in school as a freshman. She belonged to Hi-Tri, took part in archery and hockey. She likes being alone once in a while and collecting poetry. "Elly" plans to be a beautician.

TILGHMAN KOONS
We lost a truly brilliant student when Tilghman left us in January for Princeton. Outstanding as an orator and as a writer, he'll be remembered for his speeches in assemblies and defensive assignments in Miss Bond's P.A.D. class.

Bottom Row:

OTTO E. KRIENKE
The class of 1942 called him Ott the Great in acknowledgment of his feats as a star of our swimming team, but "Ott" was also active in other fields, playing on the soccer team during freshman and sophomore years. He is affiliated with the X.O.M. Club.

BARBARA JEAN KRINEY
On the intellectual side, Barb plays in the Plainfield Symphony Orchestra and plans to specialize in math and science . . . actively interested in archery, tennis, A Cappella and Motet Choirs and dancing. She hopes to be a future Madame Curie.

ANITA KRUMAN
Just to be different, it's law for Nita, as long as there aren't any temperamental people around. Quite an adaptable miss, she's taken part in basketball, soccer, knitting club, Sketch Club, and was junior executive representative.

JOSEPH L. KURTZMAN
Joe is famous for his swimming records. He was also a homeroom chairman, usher, cheerleader and a member of the Biology Club. The people he met at the swimming meets are this future doctor's fondest memories. "wise guys" annoy him.

GORDON LAIRD
Curley was a Junior Varsity baseball player, Camera Club, and band member. He likes photography and model railroading, but is undecided as to a career . . . Boy Scout and a Gene Krupa admirer.

Top Row:

WALTER LARSEN

Do we see a sports' writer or announcer in Walt? He's from Morris-town High where he participated in intramural basketball, air raid, and first aid squads. Swing music by the one and only Harry James — his amusement.

JANET ALICE LATHAM

Drawing is Janet's favorite hobby. Interior decorating is her ambition. She went out for hockey and archery and was a member of Hi-Tri . . . hates show-offs . . . will always re-member Hi-Tri dances.

REBA LEADER

Ree of senior orchestra and Senior Honorary Society has hopes of going to Trenton State in preparation for commercial teaching; otherwise its an accountant or bookkeeper. Photography, classical music, badminton and baseball comprise her hobbies.

RUTH ANNE LEBOWITZ

Member of the World Friendship Club, Ruthie likes popular music, photography and going out. She'll be looking for a secretarial position soon, confidently claiming, "It's possible."

EDWARD LENART

Ed left us in January to be a "Leath-erneck" hero, and that's as good a reason as any. He's a sports addict and features basketball, bowling, photography and was active on the basketball team and swimming club.

Middle Row:

HENRY T. LENTZSCH

Look out, here comes Moose, also known as "Henrietta." Track and soccer manager, cheerleader, Mile-stone typist, swimming and Cross Country Varsity, Entree photographer (and Girl's Sports Editor, thus "Henrietta"), also great Plainfield Swimming Club member . . . inter-ested in forestry.

ROBERT LAVINE

He's Chop to the fellows and Bob to the girls. "I got troubles too" is his favorite expression. Believe it or not, he's a senior and quite a some height . . . likes sleeping and good fun.

ALYCE MAE LEWAND

Busy as a bee that's Al with Leaders' Club, Usher, A Cappella, and Motet Choirs, Milestone and Victory Corps as just a few activities. Alyce is planning to enter Montclair State in preparing to teach. She enjoyed her fine friends and teachers.

BERNARD LEWIS

Blossom Lewis will be remembered for his football and baseball playing and his good work on the Student Council. Have you ever heard him say, "Let's get in the game!"? He's thinking of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

BERNICE M. LEWIS

Bunny's list of activities include li-brary council, Basketball Club, Hi-Tri, and secretary of the sophomore class. She likes singing and roller-skating. Future? Bunny says typist.

Bottom Row:

FRANK E. LOBAUGH, Jr.

Coming to PHS from Alfred, New York, Frank has found most of his interest centered in senior band and the ushering squad. Coins, stamps, fishing are his hobbies with teaching Spanish or history as the job he wants to do in future life.

LOUISE LOCKE

Best of people is a beautiful people. She enjoys bowling. Finishing school is her aim. Hi-Tri, Pep and Cheerleading Club are some of her activities. English. mouse.

MARY VIRGINIA LOGAN

Jinny has been active in Student Council, Hi-Tri, Senior Honorary So-ciety, Typing Club, archery team, ten-nis and Latin. Outside of school, swimming and RDL Club have taken much of her time. Aviation interests her, but for the present Jinny wishes to attend Mount Holyoke College.

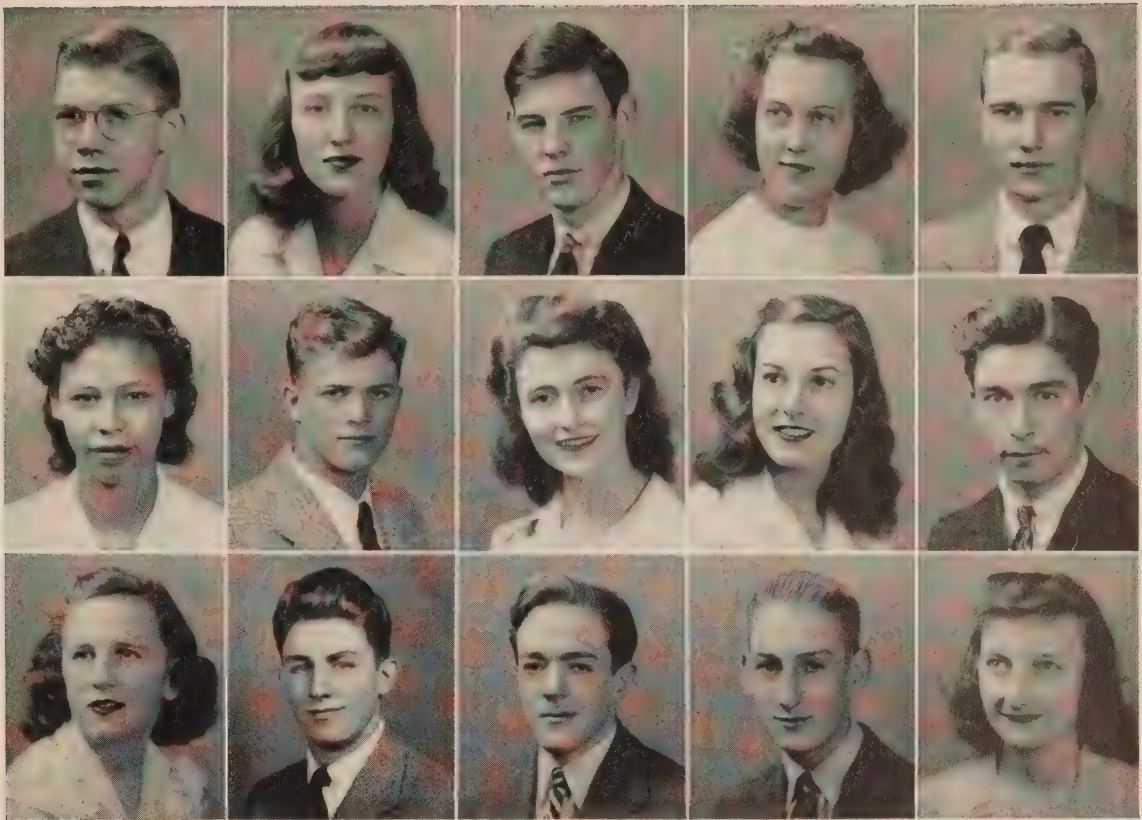

RICHARD S. LOGAN

Archaeology, biology, Boy Scouts, swimming, and whittling are some of Dick's activities. He hopes to go to St. Francis Xavier!

FLORENCE RUTH LOIZEAUX

Know Loiz? She's the gal who doesn't want other people minding her busi-ness, though she likes being with people. She remembers some wonder-ful times with a swell bunch of kids. Active in pep club, Hi-Tri, Kings' Daughters, she wants to go in for merchandising.

Top Row:

RICHARD A. LOMMEL

Dick was a member of JV baseball and follows the major leagues in the papers like a shadow; he's got a collection of clippings and pictures on the subject! He's going to join the Army or Navy.

VIRGINIA B. LOTT

Ginny is an artist. Her interests don't stop there, however, for besides participation in the Sketch Club she enjoyed membership in the Knitting Club, Archery Club, Hi-Tri, RDI and Gay Teens. All in all she is a popular girl.

EARL M. LOVEJOY

Lovey has been in football Senior Honorary Society, and the patrol. He is interested in model airplanes, drafting, and aerial navigation, and wants to be an aeronautical engineer.

LOIS LORRAINE MacDONALD

As a future private secretary, Lois enjoys swimming and ice skating, but says "taboo" on homework. She was actively interested in the Girls' League for Service and the Junior Achievement . . . also likes to read to get out of this world.

ROBERT B. MACRAE

Mac is just another of the class "executives in the making." He was home room chairman, and the possibilities of that job are tremendous! There's only one flaw—he hates homework.

Middle Row:

LOUISE MADEN

Lou has been a member of the Typing Club, basketball team, Friendship Committee, and Hi-Tri. She is very much interested in photography and secretarial work. Her fondest memory is hard work and claims it is worth it.

ROBERT E. MADSEN

Truly a sports fan, Buck spent his high school years in such activities as the Wrestling Club, track, swimming, and football manager. Aviation is the field he's interested in and he hopes to become a pilot, or mechanic.

GLORIA MALOTT

Although Boots has only been with us a short time we all know her for her dancing, roller-skating, Entree and Milestone work, and her interest in Bette Davis and the Civil War. "Santa Maria!" says Boots—thinking about her future South American career.

CHRISTINE MANDVITA

Looking forward to dancing as a career, Chris likes swimming and dancing, participated in Pep Club, baseball, Student Council, Knitting Club, Leader Club, and Hi-Tri. For her "Oh, my rushing girls," homework and skinned boys are strictly taboo.

GEORGE MANGO

George was active in football, and eagerly awaits the day when he will enter the trade of a mechanic and special hobby—airplanes.

Bottom Row:

VIRGINIA CAROLYN MANNING

Jinny is still undecided about her future but being a private secretary sounds pretty good if it's for the right person. She's been a member of the A Cappella Choir, archery, hockey, Glee Club, and Hi-Tri.

PAUL MANSBERRY

Jayvee and Varsity Basketball, junior and senior band, Student Council, YMCA, and camping, that's Pablo's list of activities and special interests. Girls give him particular enjoyment. He's going to be a physical education teacher and basketball coach.

JOHN F. MARION

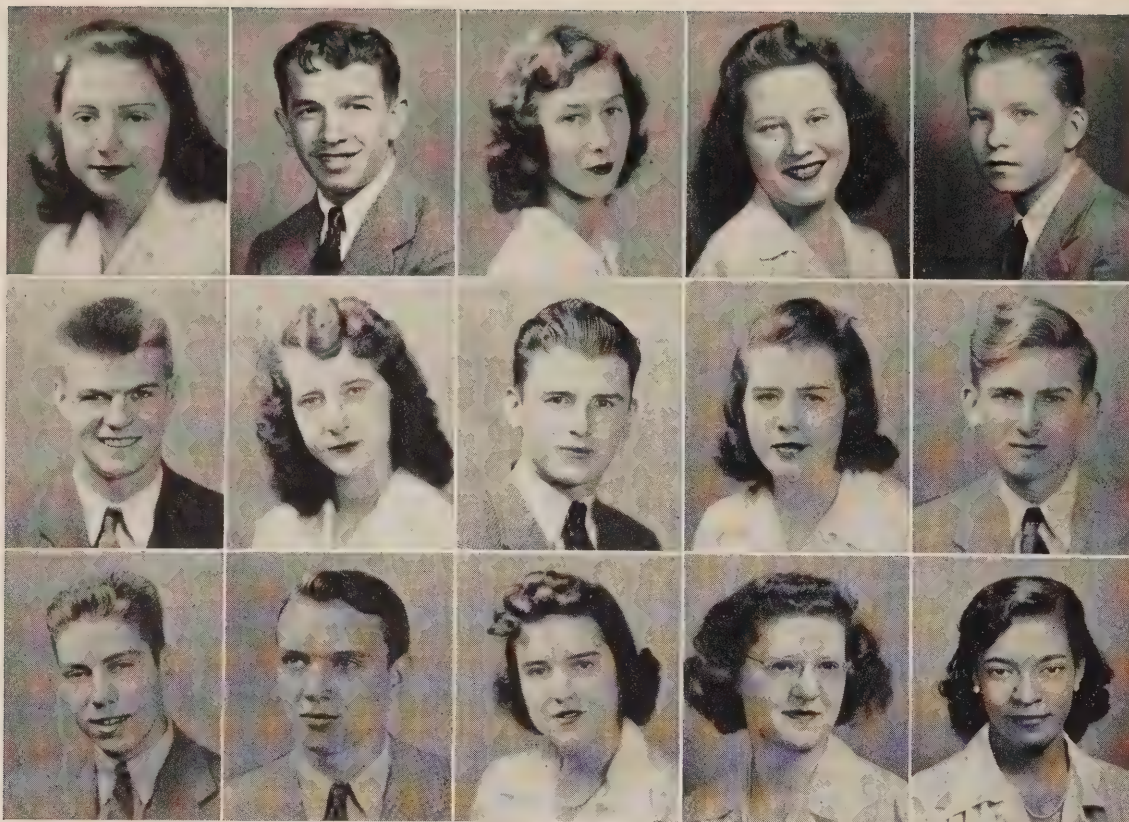

Johnny's in the Navy Air Corps, but he plans for eight months at college as a member of the V-5. VC Air Division chairman, member of VC Council, Red Cross Executive Board, Hi-Y and Student Council, he's been most active.

WALTER E. MARIENSHECK

This is the Army, Walt. There's a good chance for advancement for him.

CORRINE C. MARKY

People who boast bother Corrine, but knitting doesn't. She was a member of the Pep Club, Hi-Tri and a twirler . . . her thoughts of the future deal with journalism.

Top Row:

JANET MARTIN

Shoutie was a member of the Girls' Chorus and Old Testament Club of which in her senior year she was president. But she went out for tennis. Janet believes that a real accomplishment gives her the most enjoyment in life. She plans to be a nurse.

DOMINIC MASTROGIUSEPPE
The Maestro likes outdoor sports—fishing, swimming, football, and is an amateur photographer. He plans to enter war work after graduation. Homework and “bothersome” girls are his peeves, and if you hear someone saying, “Get smart!” it’s only Dom advising the poor freshmen.

GLORIA A. MATHESON

There’s no priority on our Stretch ‘cause this kid gets all over. Tennis, Press Club, Entree, Milestone, and Knitting Club are a few of her activities. Spring, dogs, music, sailing, and writing interest her. “Good Heavens!” she wants to be a psychiatrist!

ELIZABETH MAY

Betty May, another contribution to the nursing field, enjoys music and singing as we can see by her membership in the A Cappella and Motet Choirs. She’ll always remember the Junior Play of 1941.

BENEDICT McAVOY

“Bite my nose,” exclaims Bendu. He’s active in intramural basketball, Latin American Club, and International Relations Club. Bendu wants to join the Marines.

Middle Row:

ROYCE V. McCLELLAN

It’s the Navy for Slats after graduation. Until then he’ll go on with his Swimming Club, intramural basketball, and roller skating, his favorite hobbies. “Dig that” is his favorite saying.

THELMA McCLELLAN

On school time, Thelma participated in archery, leaders, hockey, A Cappella and Motet Choirs, and Girls’ Chorus. But out of school, she likes to dance, draw, collect souvenirs, and ice skate. When there’s a good orchestra she loves dancing.

RAY McQUE

Football is his hobby, he’s sleeping, though, certainly he was wide awake on the football field as number “33.” He devoted two years to Varsity football and two years to intramural basketball. He plans to become a machinist.

MARY J. McELHONE

Outstanding among sports-minded girls, Mac can list apparatus, badminton, hockey, basketball, baseball, besides ice-skating and bicycle riding. But she’s not only a sports fan, she also typed for the Entree and belonged to the Knitting Club.

RICHARD McEVoy

Another future engineer is Dick, who intends to join the mountain troops of our Army after graduation. In XOM Club, “Specks” has accumulated many fond memories. He loves eating!

Bottom Row:

JAMES McGARRY

“Boo on that,” cries Jim; at the clinic because he claims they aren’t what they think they are. High school activities included soccer and baseball. His special pastimes are hunting and guns, and future, finds Naval Aviation.

GENE McMAHON

Here is a fellow interested in aeronautics, Gene was on Varsity football squad two years, and spent a year on Varsity baseball. Member of Senior Honorary Society, he dislikes girls putting make-up on in cafe.

MILDRED RUTHANN McMAHON

Easily pleased, as she enjoys ‘most anything, Mimi is displeased by conceited people and “sponges.” She kept busy on the Student Council and played badminton and tennis. She features “Gee whiz” . . . was in Hi-Tri, and Rainbow Girls . . . hopes to be a teacher.

JANE McMAKIN

Just give Jane fun and friends and she’ll be satisfied, but as for hypocrites—don’t mention them! At the close of her busy years, which included such activities as Milestone Circulation Staff, tennis, and Pep Club, Jane plans to attend Katharine Gibbs Secretarial School.

JOHNETTE DIANA McNEELY

Johnny wants to be a nurse along with so many others. She was in Girls’ Chorus, Hi-Tri, and sewing club. She also enjoys tennis and horseback riding to appreciate nature. Conceited people annoy her.

Top Row:

JEROME MENDEL

The highlight of Jerry's PHS life was winning the Calco Chemistry Prize and we can see "why" by his membership in Biology, mathematics, and Chemistry Clubs. Boxing and all types of shooting head the hobby list . . . of the future—engineer.

BARBARA A. MERCER

Babs wants to be a secretary. In preparation for this career she participated in Pep Club, Hi-Tri, and King's Daughters. She is particularly annoyed by some assembly programs and was a banker for three years.

PATRICIA MERCER

Child Psychology Club certainly will help Pat in her nursing career. Pat is a good sport—you have to be to go through life as one-half of a double trouble.

ROBERT B. MERCREADY

Not only did he star in football, but there's an interest in track, too, for this well-known student. Silly, talkative girls annoy him considerably. Duckfoot was a member of Junior Leaders, and Gym Club. He expects to enter the Army Air Corps.

JULIA MEROLA

Hulia, her Spanish name, has been a member of the A Cappella Choir and Hi-Tri. She enjoys arranging flowers and being with her baby brother. This prospective secretary holds as her pet peeve discourteous talking and fooling during meetings.

Middle Row:

MARY ANN MERVIA

Popular bands and songs give Mary as much pleasure as reading and having fun. An active member of the Lost and Found Club, she is vexed by loud people . . . hopes to work in an office.

MAURICE MEYERS

Some of Mese's many activities were Cheerleaders, basketball, tennis, table-tennis, Stamp Club, "21" Club . . . going to be a dentist, particularly enjoys collecting stamps, writing poetry, and table tennis.

RICHARD MILLER

Dick is headed for the U.S. Air Corps. He likes model aviation, sailing, fishing and stamp collecting. Freshman algebra class with Jeanne Hertwig is his fondest memory. The little freshmen annoy him.

OGDEN MILLS

Did someone mention aviation or machinery? "Solid," says Og. Otherwise he's just as content to know he'll be drafted because he wants to get into the fight as quickly as possible. Says his most outstanding memory of PHS is Stella!

JOAN S. MINER

Mmm—how Joan loves to dance and swim! She was a member of the Student Council, Hi-Tri and Pep Club, participated in the "Follies of 40," besides being president of her Kings' Daughters' Circle. Another prospective teacher!

Bottom Row:

ED MONSELL

With Monk football rates tops. He enjoys reading tales of the gridiron, and carried the pigskin for our PHS Varsity team. This future machinist enjoys swimming but holds a grudge against speeches in assembly. "Monk's" fondest memory is: watching Ray McCue sleep!

AUDREY CLAIRE MORTON

The more the merrier is Sugies' motto. This potential radio actress found time to be active in the Junior Executive Board, Hi-Tri, and Dramatic Society, she will always remember her participation in the Declamation Contest in '42.

RALPH MUNSIE

Since his spare time is spent sailing and fishing, it's not surprising that Ralph plans to join the Navy via Annapolis. Besides eating, Ralph likes working with the Library Council.

JEANNE MUNZER

Knitting and dancing rate high pastimes with Jeannie. Her junior year and Kenny Moss are her fondest memories of PHS. She was active in Entree Student Council, Pep Club, Hi-Tri, Knitting Club and Hockey.

GEORGE NAGENGAST

Sports, baseball manager, intramural soccer, and ice hockey are pastimes with Shorty. He dreams of being an airplane mechanic. His hobby centers around aeronautics. Solid says "Shorty around aeronautics. Solid says "Shorty."

Top Row:

FLORENCE NAPPA

Flo, who belonged to the Student Patrol and the Child Psychology Club, likes skating, dancing, and listening to radio music by Harry James. She dislikes people without a sense of humor trying to be the life of the party. It's dressmaking for her!

ALMA V NEILL

Al has divided her time between a Cappella and Motet Chorus, Press Club, Hi-Tri, and Rainbow Girls. As you can guess, Alma likes singing, and is training for that profession.

AUDREY LOBRAINE NEILL

Aud can really sing. A Cappella Choir, Milestone, Kings' Daughters and sophomore president of the Hi-Tri comprised her extra-curricular activities. Music, and keeping a photograph album are her hobbies. She plans to attend Katherine Gibbs' Secretarial School.

RUTH MARILYN NESTLE

"Golly day" is right when we look at Ruth's list of activities: Typing and Knitting Clubs, field hockey, basketball, and Hi-Tri. Her interests center around movies; she hates getting up early and likes going places. A teacher or secretary may be her future.

WILLIAM K. NORMAN

An outstanding student! Bill has been given high honors for his splendid services as president of the Student Council, vice president of Hi-Y, member of Senior Honorary Society and member of Jayvee Football squad. Bill's first plans were for college, but the Navy waylaid him.

Middle Row:

TOM JAMES O'BRIEN

PHS will remember O'Bie for his fine baseball playing. Tom was a member of the Varsity baseball team, Jayvee basketball team and Student Council. Tom plans to do industrial work or join the Marine Corps.

WILLIAM J. O'LEARY

Bud belonged to the Airplane Club and went out for basketball. He likes ice-skating, building model planes, and having good times. Fondest memory? His first dance. Bud likes aeronautical work.

C. JANE O'NEIL

Jane hopes to be a nurse, perhaps a Navy nurse . . . likes reading, movies, and High Jinks Club . . . receives most enjoyment from attending parties . . . reminisces over a certain Coast Guard.

JACK PALMER

Hopeful of entering Texas A. and M. College, Jack, in the meantime prefers sailing "over the bounding main" to anything else. He's definitely the strong, silent type and doesn't say much about himself.

MARTHA A. PALMER

Preparing for a career in dietics, interior decorating, or social science teaching. Shorty was on the Student Council. She loathes conceited and talkative people, but particularly revels in meeting different personalities.

Bottom Row:

MARGARET AMELIA PARKER
Money, on the circulation staff of the Milestone, enjoys hockey and knitting proved her worth in those organizations here. A prospective Social Service worker, she likes interesting people and writing letters.

NANCY PASMORE

Nance's career in high school was "ve-ry interesting," containing such activities as Student Council, Chemistry Club, Typing Club, usher squad, Kings' Daughters, Hi-Tri, Tappa-Kega-Brew. She particularly enjoyed traveling and making new acquaintances while preparing for life of chemical research.

JOHN PAUL PAULS

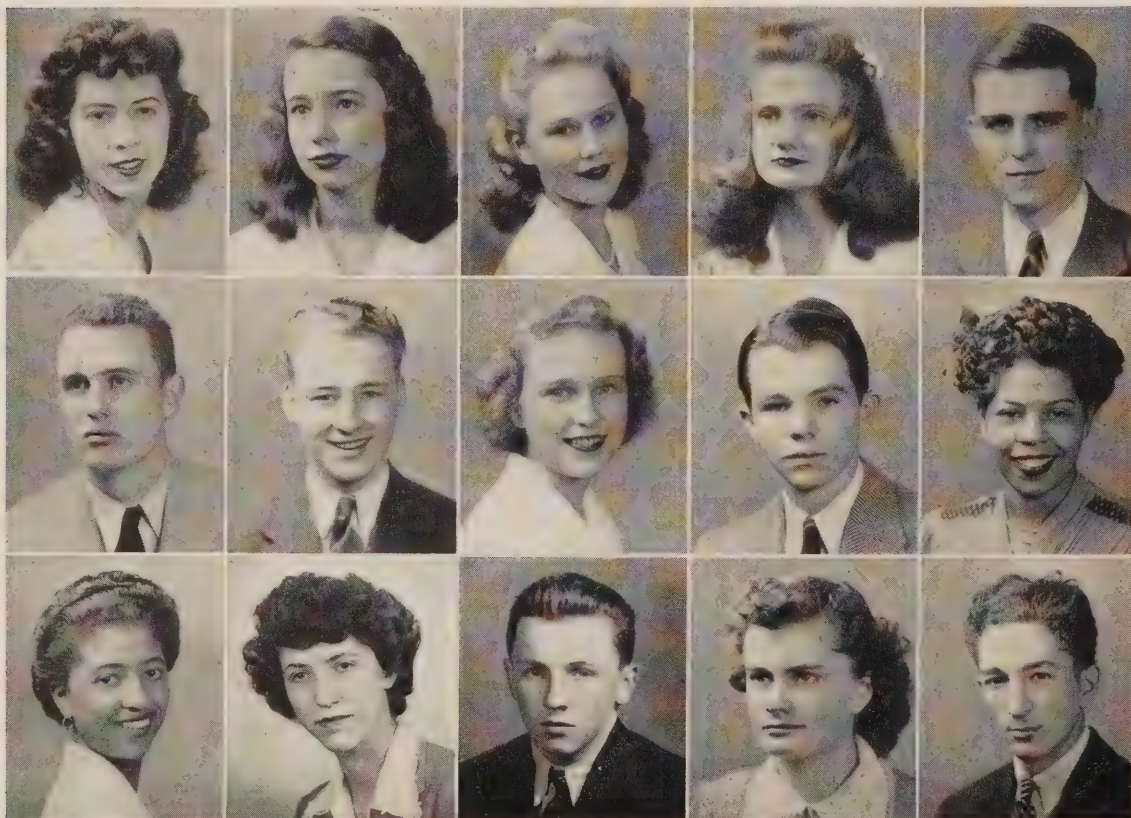

Wigam enjoys fishing, hiking, swimming and model plane building but not assembly periods. A member of the Naval Air Force under the V-5 program John anticipates becoming a fighter pilot.

ANN PEDERSEN

With a long line of activities, among them Junior Class treasurer, Victory Corps, and Student Council. Ann still had time for football games (especially NPHS) and sports. She hopes to enter the civil service as a secretary.

MICHAEL L. PELLE

Anticipating graduation, Stretch gets a kick out of saying "Oh Blue It," likes good times in cities outside of Plainfield. Stretch's hobbies are photography, swing music and sports. Intramural basketball and softball player, Football Club member, and hopes to become a mechanic.

Top Row:

KATHERINE PATRICIA PENDOLINO

Keek like many others will join workday America in the commercial field.
If you want to stay in her graces, don't comb your hair in the cafeteria.

JAMES J. PERREE

It's the Army Air Corps for Jim after graduation! Camping and building airplane models are his special interests. His spare time was spent as a member of Model Airplane Club, Biology Club, and Boy Scouts. People who don't know what they're talking about annoy him most.

DOROTHY A. PERRINE

Although Dotty actively participated in archery and Girls' Leaders' Club, she still found time to pursue her favorite hobby by joining the A Cappella and Motet Choirs. People who never talk are definitely not on her list. She enjoys all kinds of music
... was active in Hi-Tri.

HELYNE ANDONIA PERRY

Helonie can't decide between being a lawyer and joining the WAACS. She spends her time in Girl's Chorus, basketball, baseball, and hockey. She was secretary of Hi-Tri for two years.

FRANCES MAGDELAINE REYAR

Fran enjoyed a well-rounded high school life participating in the Glee Club, A Cappella Choir, apparatus and working on the Entree. She likes outdoor sports and features strictly home making for a career.

Middle Row:

JOSEPH PETRELLA

With prospects for the commercial field, Joe went out for basketball, glee club, Model plane club, and football.

ADELINE MARIE PHARR

"Say what?" declares Tiny. She participated in baseball, apparatus, hockey, and Old Testament Club ... enjoys photography and caring for children. She's interested in becoming a teacher of economics.

BERTHA MARIE PHILLIPS

Bert is patriotic, she's joining the WAACS after graduation. Drawing is her hobby. We all will remember Bert as a girl with a good sense of humor and a captivating personality.

HELEN E. PICKEL

Dancing is just love it! Pick's talents were revealed in A Cappella and Motet Choirs, Senior Executive Board, Milestone and Entree Staffs, hockey, archery, and psychology, and Hi-Tri. "Oh man!" she says—Does insincerity annoy her.

VIRGINIA MASLAK

Ginny's most happy when she's dancing, swimming, sewing, or just having a good time in general. A modest miss, she can't stand to hear people brag, although some day some office will boast having her as one of its members.

Bottom Row:

ELEANOR BETTE PINN

Becky's career is undecided. She was a member of Junior Social, Pep Club, Knitting Club and was a home room chairman. She also has been swimming, knitting, dancing to records.
She's always saying, "Glory Be."

ELEANOR H. PIQUETTE

Eleanor has done many things; outstanding among them, A Cappella Choir, social and service chairman of Hi-Tri, vice-president of Kings'
Daughters and homeroom chairman.
She has fun riding horseback and never tires of dancing.

BERTHA L. PORTER

Tiny's ambition is the job of a seamstress. She loves sewing, drawing, photography. Of course, she can't bear people who say they're democratic but are braggarts. Her fondest memories of PHS are the holidays.

BARBARA RANDOLPH

Bo certainly kept busy during her years at Plainfield High with Glee Club, War Stamp Salesmanship, homeroom chairman, homeroom banker, and Milestone circulation staff member. She likes to watch an ego in the process of deflating.

TAYLOR MICHAEL REDD, Jr.

Mike has a serious as well as light side to his nature, as his interest in psychology and pharmacy proves.
Taylor was an athlete, one of the outstanding members of our recent football teams.

Top Row:

RUTH ELIZABETH RENICK

Horseback rider, dancer, and Mariner — Betty's hobbies certainly are great. She plans to enter the medical profession. Betty dislikes gossip and says, "Are you kidding?"

BARBARA RIDGWAY

A gal who really gets fun out of life, Babs likes nothing better than sailing, singing, dancing, or hay-rides in the spring. This future receptionist is "burned-up" by hypocrites!

ELIZABETH RIEGEL

Betty likes sports, particularly skating, swimming, and fishing. Working with people, as she did on the Library Council, gives her the most enjoyment in life. She hopes to be a medical secretary.

JEANNE deFOREST ROBERTS

Jeanne puts nursing, especially as a Navy nurse, at the top of her life's profession. Drawing and knitting are her hobbies while dancing gives her the most enjoyment in life. Lack of chivalry in high school boys just doesn't click with her.

JEANNE ROLLERSON

A possible social worker, Rollie is still undecided as to a career. She likes to say, "Don't race your motor," and enjoys Hi-Tri and Leaders' dances.

Middle Row:

KARIN BEATRICE ROSENGREN

Swede goes for poetry and printing, but talking and laughing and thinking up wise cracks give her the most enjoyment in life. A member of the Library Council, she plans to be either a certified public accountant or a statistician.

FRANCIS A. ROTONDO

Student Council, homeroom chairman and Jayvee Football were among Rat's activities. He dislikes students who don't "get hep." Rat's a future pharmacist.

SAMUEL S. ROUNDS

Aviation is pretty important to Sam; it's his favorite hobby, his choice of a profession. Stage squad, swimming, and Boy Scouts kept him busy during high school. It's the Army Air Corps.

SELMA M. RUSKIN

Want to be Selma's friend? Give her chocolate sodas, New York and Classical music, but please take away practical jokers and sarcastic people. Selma's going to put her drawing ability to use in costume designing and illustrating.

ANNAMAE RYCRAFT

Annamae has been active in twirling, Glee Club, and choruses of other schools, since she is new here this year. She expects to go to a business school as her interest is book-keeping.

Bottom Row:

AGNES E. RYSHAVY

As a member of the Knitting Club, Aggie was able to pursue one of her favorite hobbies, others included reading, sewing, and dancing, especially. She plans to be a secretary.

HELEN IRENE SAMUELSON

Sammy hopes to become a secretary. She has been a member of the Library Council and Knitting Club. She likes dancing and Harry James' music.

MARY SANTONASTASO

"Do it, take it!" shouts Mary as she whirls around the dance floor. Her fondest memory of high school is that memorable five week Christmas vacation. She has just discovered how much fun ice skating really is.

CARL F. SAUERACKER

Carl enjoys reading good books and outdoor life. He was a member of Radio and Typing Clubs. After graduation, Carl plans to enter the Navy Air Corps.

BARBARA SCHAAF

A full slate of Bobbie's. She participated in Library Council, Usher Squad, Senior Honorary Society and Leaders' Club and achieved referee's rating. Boat trips, horseback riding, and swimming employ her rare idle moments.

Top Row:

THERESA FRANCES SCHAEFER

A busy girl was our Terry, with Student Council, usher squad, Girl Leaders, president of swimming team, and many sports outstanding on her list. Dancing and the piano give her much pleasure.

ELEANOR SCHNEIDER

El, a member of the Leaders' Club, loves to dance and design clothes. Good books, sweet music and sociology interest her, but until persons make her sick, "It's a relief," is her pet expression.

ELIZABETH JOYCE SCHNEIDER

Bette has been in the Junior and Senior A Capella, and Motet Choirs. Shooting is another of Bette's favorite hobbies. Sincerity is a name in Bette's mind; her ambition, a nurse.

FLORENCE HELEN SCHWARTZ

"It's terrific," says Florence, and we guess she means these giggling females she sees around. Going on her reading, writing, and dancing, Florence is heading for N.J.C. and dietetics.

MARJORIE ANN SCOTT

Dancing, vacations at the shore, and collecting records are Margie's favorite hobbies. Her activities include Hi-Tri, Program Committee, and hockey. She wants to be a chemist's assistant.

Middle Row:

MARVIN SHAPIRO

Shap has been studying to be a pharmacist. He likes chemistry, so joined the Chemistry Club. His fondest memory at PHS is, his freshman year.

RUMSEY J. SHARPE, Jr.

It's the engineering field for Rump if he can tear himself away from his fishing long enough. Among Rump's fond memories are his year of track and the first time he had to see the principal.

RICHARD SHIELDS

The Marines lured Richie away from our revered halls. We miss him, but everyone knows he's doing his bit.

FELIX ANN SIGIEL

Basketball, baseball, tennis, apparatus, Hi-Tri, all played an important part in Pollock's life at school, with roller-skating and roller-skating clubs bringing the most enjoyment outside, not to mention letters from service men. Secretary is her choice of career.

JUNE K. SILE

June wants to be a nurse. She came from New York in her Junior year and since then she has joined Hi-Tri, Junior Honorary Society, Knitting Club and R.D. She loves to dance and read.

Bottom Row:

SIDNEY SIMON

A musical "guy," Sid belonged to the band three years, Swing Band and Press Club. He'd like being a general businessman but the Marines attract him now. Jazz "It's terrific." Tunin' in on Louis Armstrong gives him a thrill.

JEAN MARIE SISCO

"Oh fudge," says Jeanie. Hockey and Hi-Tri interested her during high school and collecting records is her favorite hobby. She hasn't as yet decided what to do after graduation, but she enjoys writing letters because he's in the Marines.

CHARLES E. SIVCO

Chick left us in the middle of the year for the Marines, and a fair exchange! After it's over he plans for a career in commercial advertising. Track team, Student Council, Glee Club and Victory Corps were among his activities, and this Marine will always remember his Junior Year!

RALPH SLONIM

Ralph left us in the middle of the year, too. He's keeping up his own in Yale, preparing for a career in medical research.

ELIZABETH BARTLETT SMITH

Bette was secretary of the junior class, feature editor of the Milestone, home-room chairman, Hi-Tri secretary, Press and Dramatic Club member, junior-senior prom committee and King's Daughter member. She'll be a nurse, likes dancing, and collecting records.

Top Row:

FRANK SMITH

Smitty regrets that he is just an average student, but perhaps in the Army Air Corps he will distinguish himself. Anything concerned with aviation intrigues Smitty . . . likes nothing better than to see a fighter or bomber overhead.

JOHN J. SNEDEKER

People who don't like Winchell don't recognize talent as J. J. puts it. He was active in Student Council, News Editor of Entree, and cross-country . . . wants to retire to Canada and trap in peace . . . recalls paying severely for cutting classes.

ROSE MARIE SORIANO

Shorty will go into nurses' training upon graduation. She was a member of the patrol and belonged to the swimming team. Dancing, reading, and skating are her hobbies. Shorty's expression is "Take it now!" Loud people annoy her most, but Harry James makes up for it.

BLAINE FREDERIC STARKWEATHER

Famous for representing PHS in speaking, Stark, junior and senior president, was in Student Council, Honorary Society, Hi-Y, football and Glee Club. In the Navy Air Corps, under the V-5 plan, Stark will start training in July.

JOHANNA STERENBORG

Someday there'll be an M.D. after Junie's name 'cause that's what she's aiming for. She's taken part in Girls' Chorus and Glée Club . . . enjoys reading and collecting stamps.

Middle Row:

PATRICIA STIGLITZ

Pat, our own gift to the Navy as a nurse, in the World Friendship Club and stage crew, reading, and cooking, still found time to loaf. She doesn't like people who cheat!

SOPHIE HELEN STOCHET

Sof is interested in secretarial modeling, and war work. She was a baseball team captain, played on the basketball squad, and belonged to the Pep Club. "Sof" dislikes insistent people.

JEANNE B. STOECKLE

The freshman year holds fond memories for Steck, who served on the Library Council, and was a member of the Old Testament Club and Hi-Tri. She plans on a livelihood through commercial work.

ROBERT R. STOUT

"Duck it, boys, here comes Mr. Lewis" only it's Bob, this time. He belonged to Junior Leaders' Club and was also Stamp Club and Milestone representative . . . hopes to travel and make a million dollars.

ALBERT STRIKER

Whoever heard of Pigeon Racing as a special interest? Well if you haven't, it's nothing new to Scoop. See him for details. He hopes to be a certified accountant.

Bottom Row:

AUDREY ST. VRAIN

Coming to PHS in the middle of her junior year, Susie still found time to join A Cappella Choir, art club, Junior Executive Board, and be honoree room devotion chairman. She's planning to be a nurse.

CAROL ST. VRAIN

It's hard to be at the top of the list for Hi-Tri too. She was a member of A Cappella Choir, and Student Council; enjoys music and sports most.

JEAN SUDEC

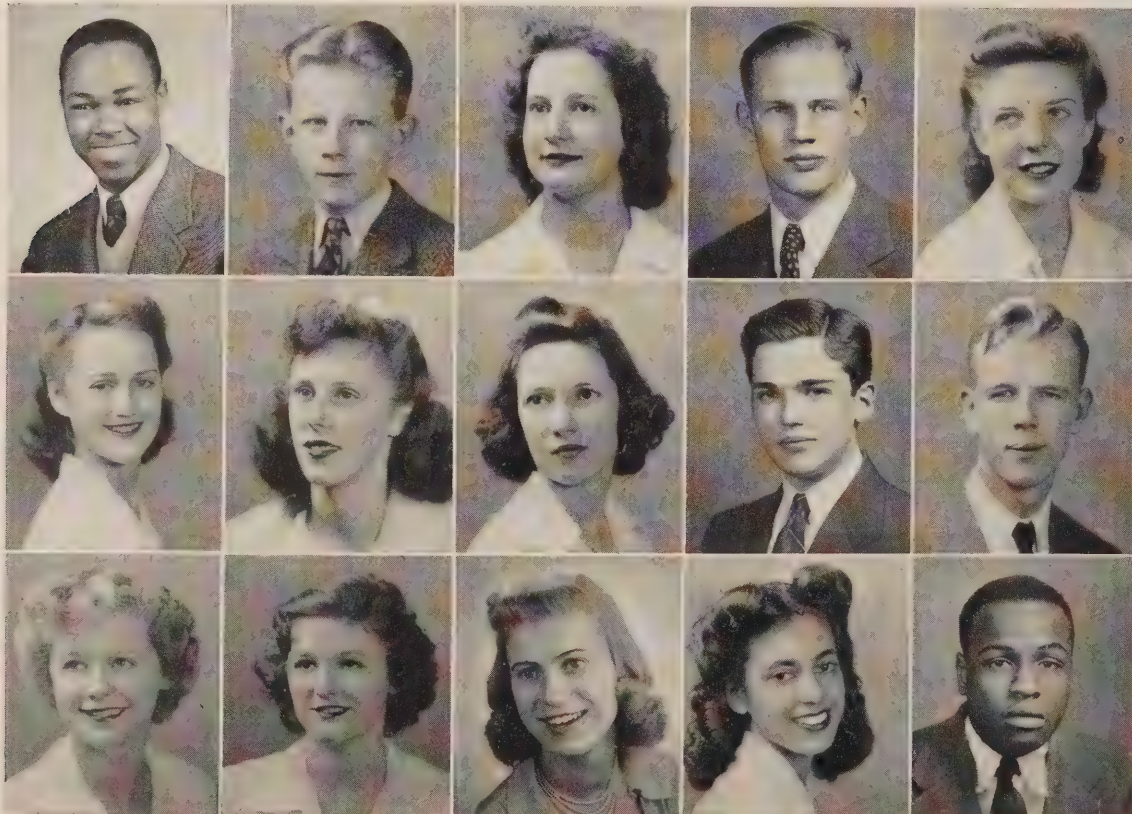

Slu was active in the "Follies of '40," archery, Girls' Chorus, and Pep Club . . . enjoys dancing and ice-skating. She wants to model or do war work . . . belongs to Hi-Tri, and dislikes curious people.

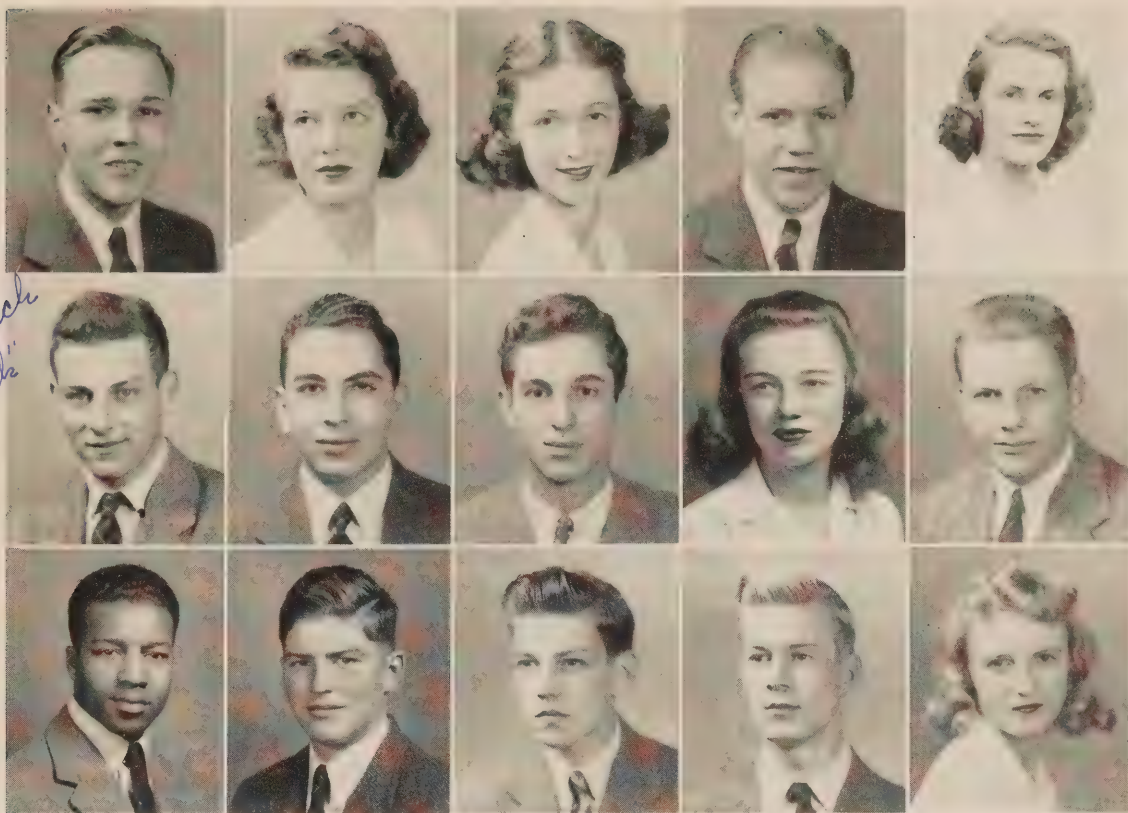

RUTH L. SWIGGETTE

Ruth's favorite hobbies are dancing, playing the piano, and collecting photographs. To carry with her to nursing school, Ruth has her fond memories of fourth lunch. "Sweeg" enjoys going places and seeing popular bands. She was active in Hi-Tri.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY TALLEY

Need a doctor, call in Bill. Don't be peeyed, you'll annoy him. Oh yes, "Don't talk me to death," he warns. Regards obtaining an education as enjoyment in life . . . active in Junior Orchestra, Jayvee and varsity baseball and "B" Football team.

Good luck
"Chick"

Best of luck - keep fading

Top Row:

WILLIAM HARRY TerLINDEN

Did you know that Wimpy, prospective electrician, has been a homeroom secretary, Stamp Club secretary, Science Club member, and commando? Well, this energetic stamp collector and football enthusiast dislikes people who annoy him during studies. But "Wimpy" loves school.

ELSA C. THIELHART

Remember Els as an usher, senior class treasurer, Leaders' Club president, homeroom chairman, and member of the Junior Homeroom Society? We can already picture her as a dress designer. Els is really fond of dancing and of the expression "Holy Cow!"

PHYLLIS G. TINSMAN

Aside from the Library Council, roller skating takes up most of Slim's PHS life. "Slim" has an all-around interest in way work since she has worked as a Red Cross Staff Assistant and hopes to enter a defense industry.

FRANCIS X. TOBEY

Watch out you aren't taken for a rabbit by Frank on one of his hunting and trapping expeditions. His main ambition is to be a machinist.

HELEN L. TOLLEY

Do we see another Amelia Earhart in Helen? Although she's preparing for a commercial art profession, her hobby is aviation. The Girls' Chorus, Knitting Club, and Hi-Tri were among her favorite activities as she liked being busy.

Helen Tolley

Middle Row:

CHARLES TOMBRO

Charles was interested in sports and was a member of the Boy Scouts. He's planning for a career in civil engineering.

EDWIN TORNBERG

Getting poor grades, Archie no end. He's been a band and swing band member, homeroom banker, "Follies of '40" and junior play participant. But his biggest ambition, being an engineer, is yet to come. Radio enthalls "Archie."

FRANK TRAMANTANO

Completing high school and then becoming a machinist is Trammi's ambition. Sports, (he doesn't specify whether as an enthusiast, spectator or player), interest him. He's definitely the quiet type!

BERNICE VAIL

Scream, hypocrites, here comes Bernie! A member of the knitting club, tennis and Hi-Tri have kept her busy. Enjoys dancing, reading, window shopping. Ambition: secretary. Belongs to T.N.T.

ROBERT VAN BUREN

Red, as right guard on the varsity football squad, as a hockey player, baseball and tennis participant, football, Hi-Y club member, and Los Srevols Club member, as lover of music and all sports, frequenter of shore resorts, can't be forgotten in PHS.

Bottom Row:

JAMES VANCE

Gang-way, here comes Lefty. On the varsity basketball and soccer teams, and as a Camera Club member, "Lefty" was well known. Photography, skating and dancing comprise his hobbies and he'll go in for engineering.

JAMES W. VANDERBEEK

PHS has a trapper (after the war's over) in Squeak, whose hobbies are hunting, fishing, and trapping. He has been a Math and Biology Club member. Swimming for the heck, of it entertains "Squeek."

DONALD V. F. WAKEFIELD

Wakey, Student Council representative, Camera and Football Club member, dislikes girls who employ the use of profane language in their speech. A draftsman to be, "Wakey's" hobbies are drawing and trapping.

JOSEPH WALDRON

We gave Joe up to the Navy. He's training for a position as gunner's mate.

DOROTHY J. WALWORTH

Knitting and reading interest Dot. Hi-Tri, Knitting Club, and homeroom banker kept her busy in spare moments. Secretarial work seems to be her plans for a career, though she's interested in psychology. Eating hamburgers with onions is her favorite pastime.

ELEANOR RUTH ZWEIFEL

E-Z anticipates journalism as a career—enjoys writing, reading, and listening to classical music. A member of Press Club, Creative Writing Club, Music Appreciation, and on the Milestone and Entree Staffs, she enjoyed contacts made in high school and dislikes insincere people.

FLORENCE MARY ZWEIFEL

Unlike her twin, Florrie will go in for dietetics upon graduation. Press, Music Appreciation, and Creative Writing Club member, Entree reporter and Milestone literary staff member, Florrie is intellectual, likes only classical music and literature.

Camera Shy

GILBERT EUGENE BOLSTERLE

This Gene Krupa of the future joined the Coast Guard earlier in the year. Gil can't stand "corny" bands. Naturally he was a member of Senior band, drum major, student band leader and swing band.

EUGENE THOMAS POUCHER

Pooch is setting his cap for the diplomatic service . . . Oh—how he hates to get up in the morning (his getting to school at 8:59½ proves it). Dial twirling, records, baseball and Ping-Pong take up his idle moments.

ROBERT THOMAS MOORE

Emmet is a member of the "Wolves" Club, but don't get excited! Likes social life and sailing, active in football, basketball, track. He hopes to become a Marine or attend Boston College or enter the trucking business.

KARL RUBIN

Rube certainly made a name for himself in PHS in the way of swimming. For four years he helped push the Cardinal dolphins on to victory. Karl never failed to catch the feminine eye with his contagious smile.

Their Goal ^{Bob White} At Last!

Junior Officers

Left to right:

Norman Kantor, Vice President

June Turner, Secretary

Robert White, President

Carol Bronston, Treasurer

Reaching for the Last Step

Now they're important . . . they didn't have to wait to be called seniors to be marked as an important part of the school. No, this year's juniors of class of '44, have been right out on the firing line of school activity.

In the entertainment field the juniors broke all past school precedents. They presented a three-act play entitled "June Mad," starring Phoebe Hardingham and Art De Vitalis. The supporting cast included Louise Loizeaux, Howard Carl, Betty Wilks, Bob Albers, Nancy Weglau, Bill Bray, Joan Saunders, John Gee, and Ruth Townsend.

When the Victory Corps started, the juniors were ably represented in the corps council by Bob White, Madge Evans, and Dick Mooney, not to mention the publicity juniors, Bob Okell and Sallie Churchill, nor to forget Georgina Gage and Miles Rikken as sub-division leaders in the Community Division.

Latin scholars are also to be found in the Junior class . . . Carol Bronston, Eleanor Moore, and Eloise Schlichting represented the Class of '44 in the Baird Memorial Contest last April.

In the Sport's limelight the junior fellows, Jim Keating, Dick James, Marvin Davidson, Pete McDonough, Nunzio Loggia, Alphonse Johnson and Seymour Sack, have proved themselves tops.

In the line of student government Mr. Held, Council adviser, has named Carol Bronston, Bob Albers, Pat Callender, Nancy Weglau, Dick Mooney, and Bob White as a few of the very influential council members.

The class projects have been under the leadership of Bob White, Norman Kantor, June Turner, and Carol Bronston as officers. In the beginning of the year Joseph Corcoran held the position of treasurer until he left PHS only to return and serve as a top ranking journalist.

They Face A Great Future

'Excelsior!' Be it ever so with the Class of '44. Leaving an enviable underclass record behind them, the juniors are aiming at an even more successful year ahead so that they may bring down the final curtain on four striking and eventful years of work and play.

Step by step they have elevated themselves until now they stand on the threshold of their last and best memories of PHS—their senior year.

Classmates have come and gone in these last three years. Each pupil has put his shoulder to the wheel to push his class to the top. Countless events spurred the spirit of the Junior class on to greater glory—the Sophomore Skating Party, Junior Play, Junior-Senior Prom and April Fools' Dance.

They face a future promising greater and better times together as a class that claims a history to rival all in history. So now proceed, Excelsior!

Sophs - Still Climbing

No longer weighed down with books nor looking in vain for places that weren't there, the sophomore class feels it has ascended the steps of progress. Having passed the first and entered upon the second year of adventure in high school, the class of '45 had hopes for the best year of all.

Too soon, however, the easy going life that sophomores "dream of" was interrupted by the task of electing class officers. Results: Steve Parello, president; Marvin Shrager, vice-president; Peggy Rapp, secretary; Harvey Rothberg, treasurer. From then on they entered whole-heartedly into every activity.

The Victory Corps was received enthusiastically. The posters which publicized the Corps and aroused the curiosity of the school on the whole were made by Jean Aschenback, a fellow sophomore and head of the Publicity Department of the Corps.

Too busy in war activity, the sophomore class found little time to plan for a class dance or party.

The right spirit is best interpreted by president Parello as he says, "The sophomores are doing their part in the task of bringing VICTORY, as members of the Victory Corps, Student Council, Hi-Y and the Leaders' Club, by supporting the scrap drive, the tin can salvage drive, by buying war bonds and stamps, and in becoming educated so that our country will not make the same mistake twice, but will grow and prosper through Our future Leadership."

Books are Alive

"Books are not men, and yet they are alive. They are man's memory and his aspiration, the link between his present and his past."

This is but part of the convincing speech that John Frey narrated in "They Burned the Books."

Still Looking Up!

Best Wishes

Seeing Is Believing

Do you believe the stories of the gigantic amount of books, papers and what-not the freshmen carry? Or of the stories of freshmen vainly searching for that convenient elevator and patiently waiting for a waitress to serve them in the cafeteria? If you do, you are deciding a great injustice to the class of '46 who like most freshmen, carry the least possible books, knew the elevator story before coming to high school, and quietly dash through the halls to be the first in line for lunch.

The official lineup is: Herbert Otani, president; James Ring, vice-president; Caryl Johnson, secretary, and Albert Register, treasurer.

This year's freshmen have been supporting the war effort. They collected scrap, metal keys, paper, and regularly bought as many war bonds and stamps as possible. They also supported the SAT campaign very well, and are a credit scholastically, for there are a great number of freshmen on the honor roll.

. . . A Freshman's Soliloquy

"I wonder why the upperclassmen pick on me? Is it just because I'm 4' 3"" or did they get angry because I went down the wrong stairs? I was only trying to be on time!"

And they're not so big—what reason do they have to get tough? You'd think they were fifty years ahead of us instead of only a couple. I'd like to go to the Hi-Y dance, only there'll be too many big guys there who'll laugh at me. Why? Maybe it was because I wore a tuxedo to the last dance. Well, it said formal, didn't it?

I can't understand how those seniors get any homework done. They never take any books home! I must say, you live and learn the ways of PHS.

But just wait 'til next year. I'll organize an Information Booth for Confused freshmen. We'll not only direct them to the right elevators, but even pick them up (piece by piece)!

High School is what we'll make it! "And we'll make it a high school that's fit for freshmen to live in. None of this razzing by the upperclassmen; no more one way traffic or elevators! We'll fix 'em!"

Celebrities of P. H. S.

Pass on Parade . . .

Gather roun', chillun, and listen to the greatest exposé that Father Time ever invented—that of the famous people of the class of '43.

Bil Norman is doing a lot for PHS now; he's principal, and right with him is Helen Christensen, as the Dean of Girls.

Ralph Slonim and Mary Logan have hit the top together. He's the millionaire who manufactures tires (that species from the ancient rubber era), and she's that ingenious modern novelist of world fame.

In the limelight are Bob Mercready and Doris Gunderson as the most popular celebrities of the day, first in the hearts of their countrymen.

Headlines from the East Coast—Broadway proudly presents Charlotte Kantor and Russel Carpenter in its greatest hit of the season "Are You Kiddin'?" Audrey Morton and Joe Kurtzman take a bow as radio's wittiest comedians. York and Yelle (Kitty and Ed to you) are dancing at the "Starlight Terrace" at the Waldorf Astoria. At present Al Aitken and Sara Hill are touring Europe with the Metropolitan Opera Co.

Jane Kellberg as Miss America of 1953 and Bill Brown, "America's Matinée Idol No. 1," are causing many hearts to throb. As the physical feat of the ages, Barbara Schaaf can shake the hand of Ernie Carlomango, who is to meet Joe Louis in the boxing ring for World's championship title, soon. The cure for lovesickness has just been invented by that ingenious scientist, Jerry Mendel. Kevin Fitzpatrick and Boots Malott has just finished their best seller, "The Art of Talking."

Eddie Yelle and Bette Smith are settled in their Long Island home with Eddie Jr., the heir to those dancing feet. Bette still day dreams of a castle in Spain. Bob Galvin day dreams of Hedy Lamarr, too.

That sophisticated John Marion led the Easter Parade with Lydia Klein this year. New York society has acclaimed Edith Kistler as its most sophisticated leader. Plainfield society has put its bid on Dolores Bates, the girl with the natural sparkling personality. Otto Krienke is natural, too. (He's the guy with the silver wings). The White House has a new tenant, that sensational personality, President Blaine Starkweather.

Gene MacMahon, big league baseball star, is still blushing over that foul ball that he hit last year; Yetta Crowetz is blushing with him (she caught the ball). Good sportsmanship reigns in the House of Kern. That's right; Dick is the Congressman who is razzed so much. He takes it on the chin, though. Helen Pickel, the ice skating star, is still being teased about her fall in Padoonk, Ohio, last month. She just laughs it off.

That vivacious Senator, Kenny Kessler, just passed a bill in Congress that will enable all high school students to run their schools. Virginia Lott with her peppiness may be our first woman president after our next election.

There, you have it all in a nutshell, PHS has certainly contributed her share of the country's well-known figures—amazing, isn't it????

Guided by Mrs. Eleanor Reppert, Mr. George A. Smith, Mr. Warren H. Held, and Mr. Waldro J. Kindig, the 1942-43 Student Council greatly fulfilled its task of service to the student body.

The Student Activity Ticket Committee led by Bill Ellis and Carol Bronston enabled over 1100 students to attend all big school activities at very little cost.

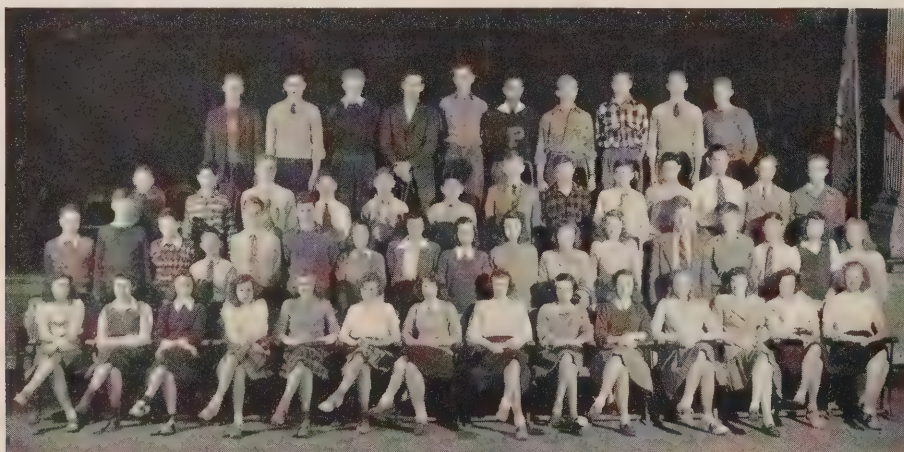

On November 20, eight PHS delegates participated in the Student Council Convention at Rutgers University. Carol Bronston and Bill Norman were speakers; Bob Albers led a group discussion; and Bob White ran for presidency of the State Council.

Among other Council activities were the formation of a War Stamp and Bond Committee headed by Jack Shuster and Miss Gertrude Moodey, faculty adviser, the backing of the Senior Honorary Society, the sponsoring of the annual Christmas program, the backing of a city-wide scrap drive, the aiding in the annual P-TA membership drive, and the sponsoring of the Football Dance in October.

Such ideas as a cabaret dance, freshman tea, cafeteria problems, school spirit organization, suggestions for future S.A.T.'s, a dancing class, and honor study halls also ran the gauntlet of discussion at the business sessions.

Bill Norman, who left in February for the U. S. Navy, was succeeded by the former vice president, Dick Kern, who in turn was replaced by Bill Brown. The secretary and treasurer this year have been Ruth Gladden and Dolores Bates.

Second row, Mr. Held, L. Gleason, A. Aitken, T. Redd, H. Christensen, B. Britton, E. Thielhart, W. Ellis, T. Koons, W. Norman, A. Gerber, and I. Bussel.

Third row, D. Kern, E. Lovejoy, W. Brown, B. Starkweather, and R. Slonim.

The most important innovation made in our school this year was the Senior Honorary Society. The advisers thought it would be better to have a local organization, rather than a national one as the former could devote more time to our school at the present.

The Honorary Society was organized to recognize the leaders of the school, who in turn could benefit the school by their services. Hence the purpose of this Society is to help organize and carry out the functions of the school, for the welfare of all concerned.

During the past year members of the Society have participated in the following activities; acting as receptionists in the front hall; giving assistance during lunch hours; planning for betterment of the cafeteria system; assistance in food rationing; conducting registration for Victory Corps; and ushering at various events. In short, the Society has helped whenever or wherever needed.

Members of the Society can be recognized by the red, blue, and silver pin exclusive to Society members.

SENIOR LIBRARY COUNCIL

The Senior Library Council of Plainfield High School is made up of seniors, juniors and sophomores. At the beginning of each school year, the principal duty of the Council is to instruct the freshmen in the workings of the library. The members also work for two periods a week before or after school, for which they receive one point of credit.

Both Councils sponsored a Book Week Contest on aeronautics, presenting a program in both Assemblies on that theme. The Councils also assisted in the Victory Book Campaign for servicemen. Other activities included story-telling for small children and helping in the Public Library.

The officers of this year's Senior Council are: president, Jeanne Stockle; secretary, Alice Chirojane; and treasurer, Ralph Hallack.

Members leaving this year are Phyllis Tinsman, Florence Brown, Bernice Lewis, and Jeanne Stockle.

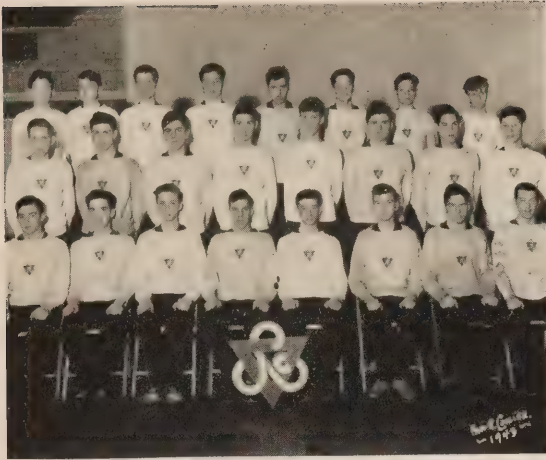

FRESHMAN LIBRARY COUNCIL

For the first time in many years Plainfield High School has had a Freshman Library Council. Miss Josephine Miller, librarian, chose the members on the basis of their scholastic records and learning ability.

Every Freshman Council member is taught the Dewey Decimal System, which teaches one to locate all the books in the library, how to use the files, and to make duplicates for cards or records. Each freshman has a senior sponsor who acts as instructor and helper. Exams are taken to determine how much he has learned.

The freshmen have their own meetings and they assist Miss Miller and Miss Catherine Moraller in every way possible.

The officers of this year's Freshman Council are: Eleanor Smith, president; Richard Thickstun, secretary; and June Millman, treasurer.

Leaders In The Making

JUNIOR LEADERS:

Left to right, 1st row: D. McLeod, assistant treasurer; B. Stout, assistant secretary; H. Kearsley, chaplain; J. Driscoll, vice president; B. Thomson, (NPHS) president; D. Mooney, treasurer; H. Day, assistant chaplain; L. Malang, secretary.

2nd row: B. Neu, B. Vanderbeek, O. Cook, W. Held, H. Brown, H. Banta, J. Prigge, T. Lyness.

3rd row: D. Chapin, D. Wean, D. Nestle, D. Kriney, T. Loizeaux, F. Close, B. Herring, A. Hofstetter.

Absent from picture: J. Keating, E. Sullivan, and B. Hammann.

The Plainfield Junior Leaders, founded thirteen years ago by a group of six high school boys, numbers one hundred eighty members, one-third of whom are now in the armed services.

The foundation of the club is the Bible. Once weekly Mr. Guy R. Sutton has led the club in Bible study.

Another aspect of the club is the development of the mind. Thursday afternoons, at the regular business meeting Dr. Willis B. Day gives an informative lecture of the Theory of Physical Education, and frequently Mr. Henry H. Banta, adviser, addresses the club on schoolwork.

The aim of the club is the development of the body through gymnastic work. Social functions of the club include dances, banquets, and a gymnastic night.

Something New - - Added

The Moorland Branch Hi-Y club has been organized for only a short time. September saw the beginning of the club; since then, it has done well as a nucleus for a more widespread and larger club.

The purpose of the club is to uphold and raise the standards and ideals of our community as a whole. Helping the poor, actively participating in the war effort, studying inter-racial issues as well as learning how to cope with them are only a few items among the activities of the club.

Officers are president, Sterling Cary; vice president, George Smith; treasurer, Aston Thompson; secretary, Robert Pittard; and sergeant-at-arms, William Brighton. Members are Everette Latimore, William Wolfe, Herman Hailey, Emmett Mitchell, Isaac Howard, Daniel Morgan, Oliver Brown, and Fred Perry.

They Love to Sing

"Lovely girls with lovely voices — beautiful songs and a charming director" introduces the PHS A Cappella Choir.

Chosen for their vocal ability and cooperation, the girls, under the direction of Mrs. Mildred P. Searles, have appeared at the annual Christmas and Easter programs robed in maroon. The group, known for its excellent ability to sing varied types of songs, received many outside invitations.

The 98 girls devoted time on Christmas Day to singing for the soldiers at Camp Kilmer. Part of their outside calendar included the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Parent-Teachers Association, the congregation of the Grant Avenue Presbyterian Church and their own Spring Concert, the Music Festival.

This year the "song birds" chose a repertoire of patriotic and semi-classical music. They introduced interesting and vivacious arrangements of "The American Patrol," "The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag," "The Lovely Four Leaf Clover," "White Christmas," "The Home Road," "You Are," and the song which is associated with them only, "Lo, How a Rose 'Ere Blooming."

Sara Hill and Barbara Ridgeway shared soloist honors and the accompanists were Eloise Schlichting, Jean Wiederhold and Gloria Boylan.

Second row: M. Rhea, J. Peterson, W. Hall, A. Cook, B. Randolph, V. Muir, N. Ruby, M. Medoff, and E. Smith.

Third row: A. Robinson, R. Hubbard, H. Banks, G. Bileyeau, and D. Biffin.

The "Motets," directed by Mrs. Mildred Searles, are a small select group of upperclass members of the A. Cappella Choir. The girls devote an extra period a week to their vocal work and usually appear at affairs desiring a small group. This year the girls distinguished themselves at the Catherine Webster Home, the Old Guard of the YMCA, the Monday Afternoon Club, and the Red Cross Center with Christmas carols.

This year along with their happy singing throughout the year, the Glee Club, led by Mr. Howard S. Savage, opened the Easter program with a pompous processional adding to the awe and solemnity of the occasion.

At the A Cappella Choir's spring concert the boys did an interesting group of three numbers and later combined with the girls to do three more selections.

Strike Up The Band!!

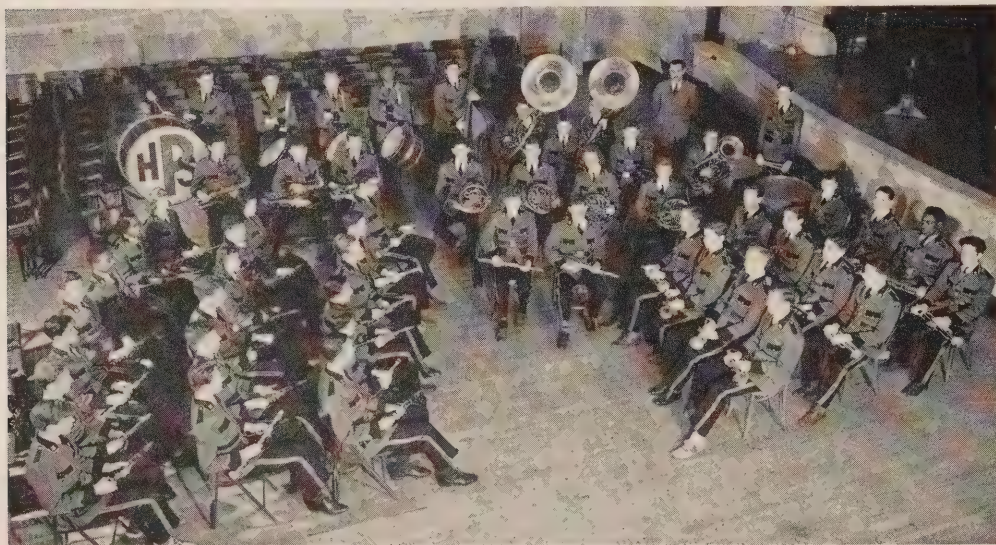

"Quiet!"—a rap, rap of the baton, and Mr. Clarence Andrews, director of the PHS Band, swings into action. The sixty-some members eagerly await the announcement of the next piece. It might be one of the famous marches of John Philip Sousa, or one of Fillmore's? Maybe it'll be something along the modern line—"Begin the Beguine," "Rose Marie"—or something from Victor Herbert. A very good guess, however, would be one of those overtures in the semi-classical or classical vein—"Semeramidi," by Rossini, or "William Tell," with its famous "Lone Ranger" passage.

Mr. Andrews has organized a "Studio Band," composed of twenty-six to thirty-six members from the senior band, to play when additional instruments are needed for more complex compositions.

Because of the transportation difficulties this year, the band was unable to accompany the football team to the opponents' gridirons. At North Plainfield, however, the band was there in full splendor, where they cooperated with the North Plainfield Band and formed a patriotic "V" on the field. The band also played at all home games.

During the extended Christmas vacation the band gave concerts for almost all the grammar schools and several Boy Scout functions. For "compensation" our band was rewarded a trip through Radio City in New York, and witnessed the evening broadcast of Fred Waring and his aggregation.

Music - 'The Voice of Spring'

Conducted by Mr. Dwight Brown, the fifty-piece PHS orchestra has rounded out a successful year. When school re-opened this year, the Junior Senior orchestras united. Special rehearsals were added on the mornings of Wednesday and Friday from 8:15 'til school time. The students have been very conscientious in attending these extra rehearsals.

Appearing for the first time, the orchestra participated in the Thanksgiving program in which they played the famous "Voices of Spring" by the well-known Viennese composer, Johann Strauss. During music week, the orchestra played for the annual meeting of the combined Union County Service Clubs.

Mr. Brown also innovated a new organization known as the String Septet, composed of five violinists, a pianist, and a vibra-harpist. The violinists are: Mr. Brown, Mary Kay Schlichting, Eva May Campbell, Yula Hyland, and Lois Beal. Gloria Boylan was the pianist. Jeanne Rosenkrans offered renditions on the vibra-harp.

This group assisted in the Easter program by playing "The Rosary," and on April 8, they presented a few numbers, mainly "Memory Lane," "Begin the Beguine," and "The Indian Love Call."

The orchestra and String Septet played for several grammar school programs, and the Septet entertained at a special program for NPHS.

First row, standing in the back, left to right: A. Gerber, W. Ellis, B. Basset, A. DeVitalis, A. Morton, J. Brunner, T. Schaefer, S. Hill, S. D'Agostino, and B. Smith. Second row, T. Koons, J. Bronston and C. Kantor.

'The World Is A Stage'

A sudden glare of the footlights, a tug of the curtain, and the play was on! The participants experienced that sensation of being unusually "weak in the knees." As each member of the cast stepped onto the stage, he waited for the others to utter some little word; could this be "stage fright?"

Ah, at last the faithful prompter whispered a cue and the day was saved. The play moved on rapidly, and as the curtain fell, another huge success was credited to Plainfield High.

The group, composed of juniors, seniors, and some sophomores, all of whom had to qualify for membership, started their year's activities with a performance of "They Burned the Books," by Stephen Vincent Benet.

Phoebe Hardingham, a junior member of the club, represented PHS at the poetry reading contest at Newark, N. J. The final declamation contest was held in May and included the following girls of the club: Marion Erickson, Mary Louise Chirojiane, Phoebe Hardingham. The boys were: John Frey, Bruce Bassett, Robert Lundstrom, and George Turk.

The Easter Program included six girls of the club in a pantomime to the Largo and a reading on "Immortality" by Russel Carpenter.

'June Mad' Overwhelmingly 'Dippy'

'Effie' Steals The Show

The curtain went up with a full house on the night of November 13 and 14 when the Junior Class presented "June Mad," a three-act play, by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clements. "June Mad" was the first full length play, a rollicking comedy about the trials and tribulations of Penny Wood, an average teen-aged girl. The production sent the audience home forgetful of war worries and homework troubles.

Phoebe Hardingham portrayed to perfection the part of Penny and every mother in the audience was reminded of the days when a glamorous dress and a handsome beau meant everything in her young life. Likewise, every father was reminded of the time when having the family car for one evening was worth a whole month's allowance, as they watched Arthur "Dippy" De Vitalis enact the part of Chuck, Penny's ardent teen-aged suitor.

Howard Carl in the role of Roger Van Vlek was certainly a scoundrel; it took both Penny Wood and Julie Harris, played by Phoebe Hardingham and Ruth Townsend to show him up.

Another interesting character was "Effie," the maid, comically played by Nancy Weglau.

Many other characters enacted their roles naturally and according to part. They were Mrs. Wood, Louise Loizeaux; Dr. Wood, Norman Kantor; G. Mervyn Roberts, Robert Albers; Milly Lou, Betty Wilks; Elmer, William Bray; Mrs. Harris, William Ellis; Ralph and Shirley Wentworth by John Gee and Joan Saunders.

1st row, left to right: R. Albers, R. Townsend and W. Ellis. 2nd row: B. Bray, A. DeVitalis, B. Wilks, H. Carl, P. Hardingham, N. Kantor, J. Gee, J. Saunders, L. Loizeaux and N. Weglau.

Losers, Finders; Cyclists and Magicians

"Say, fellow, have you found my pen?" asks an inquiring student at the Lost and Found booth. Yes, this organization has helped numerous students find lost articles. Such aid is accomplished by reliable and honest pupils under the direction of Mrs. Celia C. Whitford, Spanish teacher.

Complete wrecks can now be ridden after a session with the practical members of the newly formed Bicycle Club. Jay Mintz, James Waldron and Shirley Moore have led this group in the positions of officers, with Mr. Nelson as adviser.

Sponsored by Mr. Caryl Dunavan, the Magic Club is one of the more active clubs in the school. Milton Grant is president, while Bill Bray, Norman Stewart, Peter Smith and Alan Stewart are the chief magicians.

Meet The Y's . . .

The Hi-Y Club's chief interests centered around the war effort this year. During the Courier-News drive, the club carried out an advertising campaign in the home rooms, thus stirring up school spirit to the tune of 250,000 pounds.

Talks by servicemen on officers' training and life in the service prepared members to take their parts later on, while movies on aspects of war work and the various services highlighted the meeting.

Joint activities were carried out with other Hi-Y clubs, while discussions and a joint play were planned with the Senior Hi-Y club. Members attended many conferences held throughout the year for YMCA groups.

The club officers are: president, Ralph W. Jacobs; vice-president, John Marion; secretary, first term, Tilghman Koons; secretary second term, Jack Shuster; and treasurer, Edward T. Yelle.

Bill Ellis and Tilghman Koons, two seniors, left during February to enter Princeton University. Members who have left to join the various services are Bil Norman, Navy; Houston Baker, Al Aitken, and Will Vincent, Marines.

. . . For Variety

Friday nights are Hi-Tri nights. The program might feature a speaker, a fashion show, singing, or even a play written and acted out by members of the club. Besides the weekly meetings, there are also the mid-winter and summer conferences to which representatives are sent from all over the state.

A new feature this year will be the play given with the Hi-Y club under the direction of Miss Alice Ariel, adviser; part of the profits will go to the war effort.

Hi-Tri is fun, but it is serious too. This year the clubs have been turning over several meetings a month for work in the war effort; such as, making scrap books for the U. S. O. and rolling bandages for the hospital.

The new Girl Reserve secretary, Miss Katherine Cole, has been a splendid help, especially at those crucial moments when the cry comes "Our speaker hasn't arrived" or "Jane's sick so we don't have any music."

A first year success—the Plainfield High School branch of the nationwide High School Victory Corps has become that since innovation here.

Formulating general plans to start the Corps program off, the Victory Corps Council, composed of faculty and students, representing the classes, Student Council, publications and art department, met to decide upon membership requirements.

Members are: chairman, Mr. W. Kindig, Mr. H. Banta, Mr. G. Smith, M. W. Held, and Mr. C. Dunavan; Miss A. Achtenhagen, Miss K. Patton, Miss G. Paul, Miss A. Demovic, Miss M. Smith, and Miss H. Michalska; and R. Mooney, R. White, R. Okell, J. Ring, J. Marion, J. Frey, R. Neu, M. Evans, J. Aschenbach, J. Brunner, R. Strom, J. Gidding, S. Churchill, and A. Lewand.

The largest group is the General Membership of almost 1000 students, which has divided into six special divisions for junior and senior enlistment.

The Community Service division under Miss Smith was subdivided into several groups; such as, Hospital, Public Health, Red Cross, and Messenger services, wherein each division became a vital part of Plainfield's war effort.

The production service was most noteworthy in its Victory Garden Club under Mr. W. Sette; likewise, the farm project under Mrs. C. Bush could not be overlooked as she found locations for many high school students on farms.

Perhaps the most unique of all divisions is the Sea under the leadership of Mr. "Skipper" A. Smith.

A strictly pre-induction group is the Land Service, sponsored by Mr. M. Frischling, which has arranged several speakers for all boys who expected to enter the service this year.

The Air Service Division, with Mr. C. Bogart as adviser, has been really working hand-in-hand with the pre-flight course.

A precedent in PHS, the Victory Corps has had a most successful beginning.

A Laugh For Scrap

T. Koons, J. Marion, E. Yelle, and R. Jacobs proved that American can and will retain their sense of humor during wartime. As officers of Hi-Y, the boys were in dead earnest about the scrap drive sponsored last October.

The Book Of The Year

Amid the hustle and bustle in the combined Entree-Milestone cubby hole in 208, the '43 yearbook was born . . . Somewhere underneath piles of pictures, copy, paste-up sheets, cuts, sketches, and more pictures, the Editor sat in a concentrated whirlpool of a hundred and one jobs to do. At his side were his eager attendants ready at a minute's command.

"Have all the pictures been identified, Joan? Miriam, let's have the final senior write-ups by 3:30! Have you received any new pictures of fellows in service, Bette? Remember Tuesday's deadline! Joe, I want that Cheer Leaders write-up by tomorrow morning 8:30 sharp! Dave, did you develop those pictures yet? O.K. folks, let's close shop" . . . No sooner gone then back again—What a life!

For all the rush and bother, the running around, the "burning of the midnight oil"—with all the work and all the fun, the deadlines and contracts, the letters and notes, the proofs and copy, amidst the shouting and clamoring, the noise and gay laughter, in the classrooms and on the streets, THE MILESTONE stands for PHS spirit and fame.

"We'll carry it through" was Editor Irwin Bussel's motto. With the encouragement and guidance of faculty adviser, Miss Ann Demovic, and assistance of the staff, it is safe to conclude, "We have carried it through a most memorable year—a year of work . . . and fun."

Going - Going - - - Gone!!

A very small but efficient business staff did the job of financing this year's Milestone under especially trying circumstances.

The circulation staff held a third sales campaign to give everyone the opportunity to buy a yearbook perhaps for the last time for the duration. With continual striving they reached a sales goal of 650 copies sold.

Despite the rising costs of publications and various conflicting elements, the Advertising and Circulation staffs plugged along under the leadership of Abe Gerber, manager, and Miss Jeanne Birtwhistle, business adviser.

'In Sound Body And Mind'

We Make Our Last Bequeaths

To Whom it May Concern, to whom it may not concern, in other words, to anyone who can read and those who can't:

We, the renowned, illustrious, and distinguished class of 1943, being of sound body, and, we hope, sound mind, and knowing that our ever-glorious days in the ever-glorious PHS are coming to an end, do herewith declare our last will and testament:

I. To those Juniors who are about to become seniors (they hope) we leave:

1. Those cherished front seats in assembly—which we did not have.
2. A senior president with as swell a personality as ours.
3. A crop of song hits as wonderful as our "That Old Black Magic" and "As Time Goes By."
4. The thrill and honor that comes with a driver's license (as well as the youngsters who want you to taxi them).
5. The senior privilege of making up absence excuses and what making up!

II. To Future Juniors:

1. The trials and tribulations of being distinguished upperclassmen.
2. The fun and hard work that go into the Junior Play.
3. The pleasure of obtaining a class ring and giving it to a heart beat.
4. To the boys—physical exercise "a la comando."

III. To Future Sophomores:

1. Hopes for a date for a Hi-Tri, Leaders, or Hi-Y dance.
2. The privilege of "looking down" on the freshmen,—and we do mean looking down!

IV. To Incoming Freshmen:

1. Four (?) years of toil ahead.
2. A pair of Adler Elevated Shoes.

V. To the Faculty:

1. A new group of "brain children" to take the place of those graduating (whom are we kidding?)

2. To Miss Mary Hague—A shiny new megaphone.
3. To Miss Alice Ariel—A movie contract, 'cause Hollywood doesn't know what it is missing.
4. To Miss Helen M. Bond—One of those priceless packages of chewing gum.
5. To Miss Ann Demovic—A shiny new, red bicycle with free wheeling, soft upholstery, and two rubber tires with retreads.
6. To Mrs. Beatrice Texier—A halo to top off her sweet nature.
7. To Miss Gertrude Moody—The ability to equal or even to improve this year's amazing sale of bonds and stamps.
8. To Miss Josephine Miller—A library full of silent students.

VI. To the School in general:

1. The bruises and callouses received while waiting in line for lunch, under the "newly improved" system.
2. Our wonderful, new principal—Waldro Kindig.
3. The benefits and problems of the new time schedules.
4. More teachers with some of Miss Achtenhagen's friendliness and consideration.
5. Some more transportationless dancers.

We do solemnly swear that the above is the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth,

So help us hefty.

Time Out!!

'Hold That Line!!'

Confronted with a heavy schedule, the PHS "Gridders" found the going tough last fall. Not only did the Liddymen have a difficult ten-game schedule, but Coach Jack Liddy had to cope with one of the lightest "elevens" in Plainfield High School's history. Only three good-sized lettermen showed up for September practice. Among the backs, the "bulling" half-back was never to be found.

Opening with Careteret and Columbia, the gridsters found themselves against heavier and more experienced elevens.

Chubby Miranda, the diminutive fullback from Bound Brook, literally beat the "Cards" single handed. There isn't any shame in this, as Chub was the high scorer for the state.

Playing their finest defensive game of the campaign thus far, Coach Liddy's operatives bowed to East Orange, one of the finest schoolboy's teams in the state. Spurred on from its showing at East Orange, Plainfield next traveled to Morristown. Facing a tricky team, the Liddymen met their match and tied the Colonials.

West Orange, a usual powerhouse, was stalled in the first frame by the Cards, but it proved too much in the end. Here we proved to be a good defensive outfit.

North Plainfield High School ruled a favorite once again. We showed them that we were not what they expected. They scored first, but then Jake Dexter, doing yeoman work went around end for our first score. A few minutes later Taylor Redd passed to McCue for our second score, McCue converting on both occasions. The third period belonged to the Canucks, for they scored twice, bringing their total up to twenty. Redd rushed the last score over, but McCue's kick was blocked and the game ended in a 20-20 deadlock.

On one of the coldest afternoon's of the year, a great combination of backs possessed by Rahway proved a little to much. In the meantime, another game was scheduled with North Plainfield with the proceeds to go to an injury fund. The first half was scoreless, but North Plainfield's Frankie Bausmith hammered through for a touchdown in the third period. Plainfield then started rolling—Ernie Carlomango, small as he is, knocked North Plainfield down the field and finally crossed "Old Glory." McCue's conversion was good, and we led 7-6. North Plainfield, growing desperate, opened up a passing attack and scored with about five minutes of playing time left. The Cardinals didn't have time to score again and must go down as the second team in history to lose to North Plainfield.

'Fight - Team - Fight'

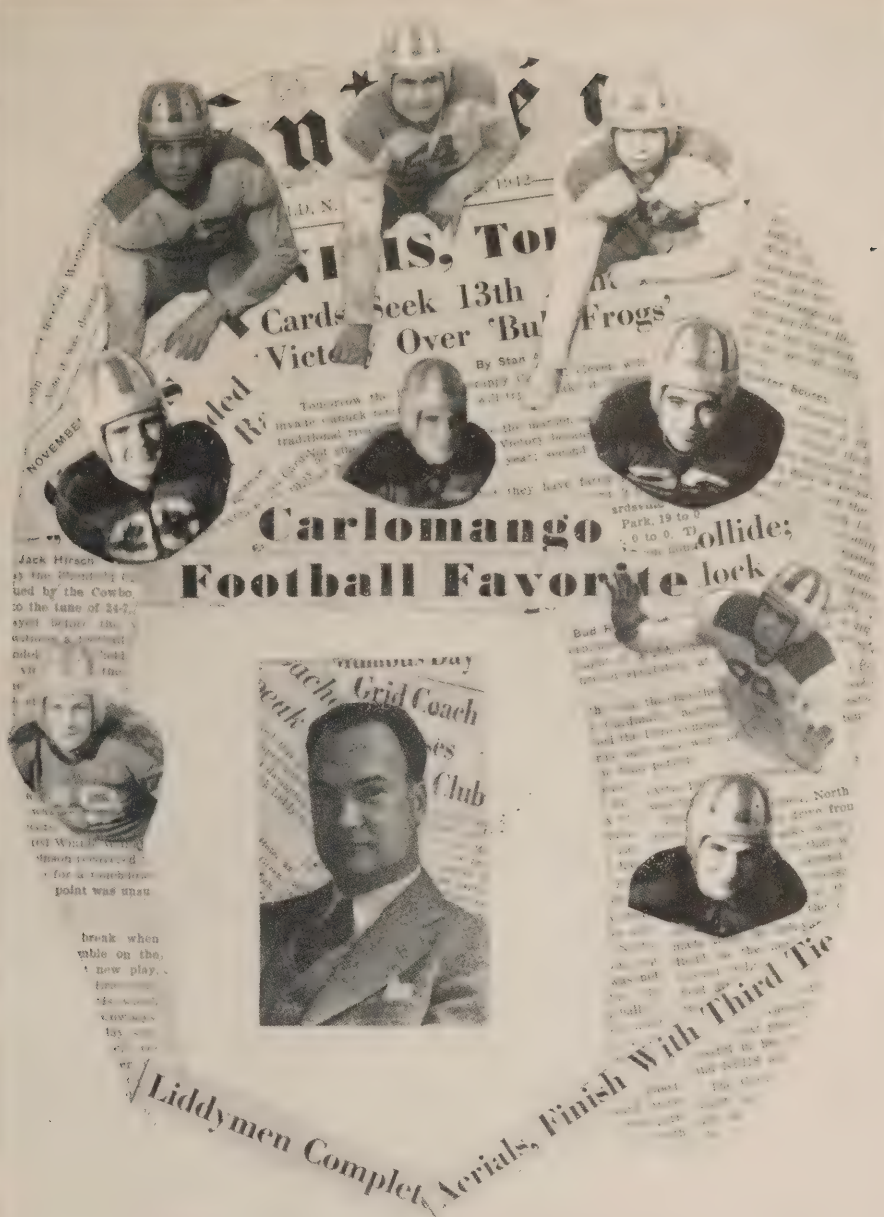

Through rain and mud, against weight and odds, the Cardinals braved the storm.

Although somewhat disheartened, the gridders went on to play one of their best games against a highly favored Woodbridge eleven on Thanksgiving Day. The "Woodmen" had a much heavier team but our men fought hard to win. More than once McCue's super kicking helped us out of a tight hole. Woodbridge scored through the line toward the end of the third period; however, Plainfield kept fighting and was rewarded in the last period when "Jake" Dexter flipped a pass to McCue who took over the yeoman position in the end zone. McCue's kick was wide, and Woodbridge came surging back in an effort to win. Plainfield still held and was starting to make another scoring bid when the final gun sounded.

Physical Fitness

Compulsory athletics made their first appearance in Plainfield High School last November when junior and senior boys began reporting to high school field for calisthenics and recreational games. Later, in the winter, military drills were given by two non-commissioned officers from Camp Kilmer.

The purpose of the new program was to prepare the boys for the rigors of Army life, if and when they were inducted. A commando course was set up on the football field, and the students could be seen running the course every afternoon.

Frank Lobaugh, senior, went through the paces as the Physical Fitness Program went into effect.

Attention!

Parade Dress!

Only a few of the Army commands that the boys are learning in their preparation are: attention, parade dress, right and left flank; right, left and, to the rear march, present arms, and forward march. Our boys will be ready when they call!

Army instructors show our boys how "it's done."

Between the Head Pins

Bowling has gained such popularity that Plainfield High had its first successful Bowling team this year. Bowling became a minor sport, largely through the work of Bill Hamilton and Athletic Director, Mr. Hub Stine.

Meets were arranged for the first time, which proved to be very exciting. The best Plainfield could do was to earn a split with Somerville, and, at another time, Plainfield, had more total pins than Somerville, thus being able to win by a decisive margin.

A match was also arranged with the faculty in which the Red and Blue bowlers won with a maximum count. The faculty was represented by Mr. Stine, Mr. Raymond Lewis, Mr. John Sierge, Mr. Henry Banta, Mr. Kermit Whitehead, and Mr. William Gordon.

Individual honors of the school for the men with the highest average went to Bill Hamilton—159, Bob Daly—157, and Bill Minarch—153.

Members of the Red and Blue team are: Bob Daly, Bill Minarch, Bill Hamilton, Neal Foley, Gene McMahon, Chub Bradley, Wayne Jensen, Paul Mansberry, Richard Arndts, and Brad Baker.

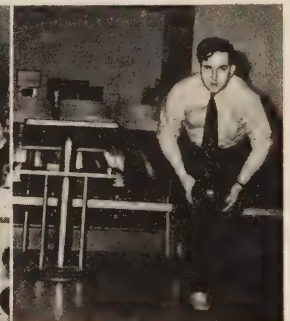

Because of the accelerated Physical Fitness program, plus the transportation difficulties, the hill and dale boys didn't have a very active season. The Cards participated in two dual meets, and lost both to Rahway and Union. They did, however, manage to place fourth in the Union county championships.

Those who carried the Red and Blue colors were: Bruce Dickerson, Bill Brown, Jack Moody, Tony Tozzi, Bill Burner, Ralph Hann, Jack Shuster, Seymour Sack, John Buy, Keith Sloan, Alexander Haywood, Junis Jackson, Russ Carpenter, John Hennessey, Lou Rothberg, Marvin Davidson, Bill Ellis, Jim Keating, Richard James, Phillip Hilley-Swank, Carleton Jacobs, and Wallace Campbell.

Plainfield's four-game winning streak was brought to an end Tuesday when Thomas Edison High School of Elizabeth defeated the Cardinals.

It was unfortunate in spraining his ankle in the Bound Brook game, thus making it impossible for him to take part in the Phillipsburg game. He would have been a great help, and the team would not have been such a bad Ray McCue in his first year out. Lots of help under the basket his size and ability. His shot was that of the team, where he sank it which won the game.

The record of the season follows:

Mansberry	141	591%
Carlomango	111	561%

They Beat The 'Bull (N.P.H.S.) Froggers'

What would have been a rather dismal season for the Plainfield basketeurs turned into a crowning success, as the Cards won the city championship in two straight games from North Plainfield. The second, and championship winning contest, will long be remembered by those who witnessed it. It was an overtime affair that saw Plainfield sink their game winning basket in the added "sudden death" period. The victory kept intact Coach Bill Brann's record of never having lost the city crown to the Boroites since taking over the coaching duties.

The Brannmen just missed the .500 mark, winning 9 and losing 10 games. Handicapped by the lack of a practice court during the Christmas vacation, due to the oil shortage the team gave a good showing. The Cardinals were victorious over Dunellen, Cranford, Metuchen, Linden, Hillside, St. Patrick's, Bound Brook, and North Plainfield twice. They lost to Rahway twice, New Brunswick, Linden, Cranford, Thomas Edison, Phillipsburg, Regional twice, and Thomas Jefferson. They also competed in the Union County Tournament, reaching the semi-finals, and the State tourney, but were unfortunately eliminated in the first round.

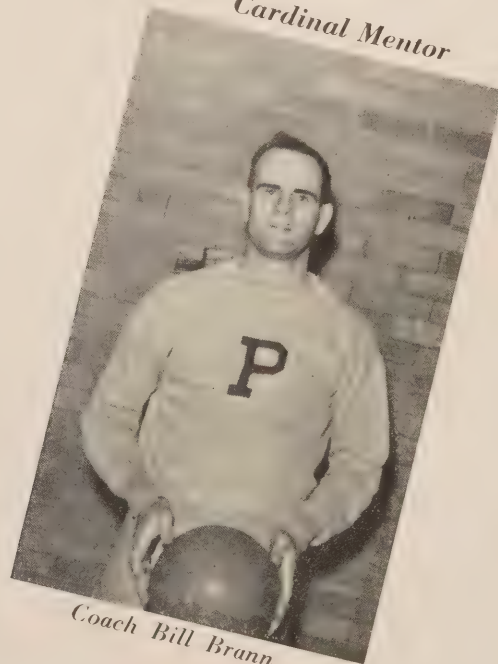

The starting five consisted of Paul Mansberry and Ray McCue at forwards, Winnie Williams as center, and Ernie Carlomango and Al Frankowski as guards, with Allen Sweet the number one substitute. Mansberry led the Red and Blue in scoring, tallying 181 points in 18 games. Ernie Carlomango, in addition to his fine defensive play, was close behind Paul with 141 markers.

How to Win in Five Easy Lessons

By Coach Victor Liske

First Lesson for Joe Kurtzman

Otto Krienke

Still Champ

In a trail inscribed in the annals of PHS aquatic history, Coach "Victory" B. Liske's water combine once again proved themselves among the most worthy Cardinal squads to display the Red and Blue. Plainfield High more than equalled last year's prodigious accomplishments by acquiring runner-up positions in the National Interscholastic Swimming Championships.

The Card Power House was paced by the brilliant record-shattering performances of Hank "Invincible" Lentzsch and Joe "Mole" Kurtzman in which Joe churned up new school and county standards with the respective times of 2:30.4 for the 220-yard freestyle and a 1.08.7 for the 100-yard breaststroke.

Otto Krienke had his usual double victory in the dive and the 100-yard backstroke. The rest of the team were Hal Conn, Jim Vanderbeek, Charles Nagengast, Pete McDonough, Arthur Clark, Bill Walker, Roger Lewis, John Prigge, Charles Hadley and Harry Heidelberg.

Inaugurating the season with a crushing defeat over Pingry 41-16, the scarlet tide continued its string of successes to total five straight tallies. The County Championships fell in favor of the tanksters as they doubled their closest competitor's score, to capture first place in all but two events.

Columbia, however, turned the tables on the "Ever-victorious Cards" to conclude the dual season with but a lone loss by a 29-38 decision.

The feature dual meet of the year was ceded by a three-point margin to "Coach" Joe Kurtzman's Red team over "Coach Lentzsch's Blues in a 30-27 battle that ended in the Red Team's favor.

Highlight of the year occurred when the Red and Blue Medley Team composed of Peter McDonough, backstroke; Joe Kurtzman, breaststroke; and Hank Lentzsch, freestyle, splashed into second place in the National Interscholastic Meet.

'Strike Three!'

"Yer out," cried the umpire, but the Cardinals did not take heed of the arbitrator's orders. They went on to win more than their share of games.

The Cards lost the services of the following stars for the '43 season: Dutch Schmidt, Pete Peterson, Joe Black, Ken Hess, Eddie Kane, Pluggy Kochan, Stan Jadeski, Simon Monteforte, all pictured below.

The Liddymen were pleasingly surprised when it was announced that the Newark Bears would go through their Spring training at the local Randolph Road field.

Playing a game against a picked group of high school stars, the Bears faced the Cardinals. Among the "talented" Red and Blue players that made the squad of only 28 players were: Norm Rhinehart and Gene McMahon, pitchers; Fiore Ciarfello at the hot corner, Bill Minarck and Sonny Madjeski at the keystone combination, and patrolmen, Tom O'Brien, Dick Kern and Harold Redd in the picket line.

Men Of Speed

Prospects for this year's track team are definitely good, with a number of returning lettermen. Jack Moody, Plainfield sophomore, who tied for first in the high jump at Madison Square Garden in the Nationals, will bear special watching in his event. If he can equal or better his mark of 6' 2", it should be good enough to take first in the county or State meet. Emmett Mitchell, also a sophomore, will return to run the half mile.

Also returning for another campaign will be Alphonse Johnson in the hurdles, Jack Shuster and Seymour Sack in the mile, Dick James, Bill Brown and Jim Keating in the pole vault, Bruce Dickerson and Ralph Hann in the 880, Marvin Davidson, a standout in the quarter and broad jump last year, Blaine Starkweather and Austin Wolfe in the dashes, and Fred Dellaperute and Larry Gleason in the weights. A number of promising freshmen and newcomers will round out the body of the squad.

'I Shot an Arrow!'

Zing! And the slender arrow leaves its momentary perch, to fly through the air and land smack in the center of the target. Is it a bull's eye? It is! It's always a bull's eye when the PHS Girls' Archery team lines up to enjoy Robin Hood's favorite sport every Wednesday.

'Watch It Fly'

Junior and Senior girls are the only ones able to join this very popular club, that meets every Monday afternoon and assembly period Friday. Junior and senior captains are Betty Arthur and Edith Kappmeyer. The girls learn the fundamental rules and then strive to play as perfect a game as possible. While it may not be perfect, it is fun!

'A Lucky Basket'

The girls' basketball club, under the leadership of Miss Snyder, really has an exciting time every Tuesday afternoon and Friday during assembly period. The captains: Bessie Phillips, freshman; Janet Penny, sophomore; Ann Caulfield, junior; and Barbara Schaaf, senior. Nearly experts on guarding and shooting, and each game furnishes plenty of fun.

'Ground Sticks'

Is hockey exciting? Just take a trip over to the PHS field and watch those girls fight it out. This year the seniors, under the captaincy of Jane Kellberg, played second fiddle to the victorious juniors who won the tournament 2-1.

Cheer Leaders

1st row, left to right, M. Loeber, and J. Saunders. 2nd row; R. Townsend, L. Lippincott, L. De Vitalis, B. Arthur, B. Van Arnam, and C. Loizeaux. 3rd row; Mrs. Ruth B. Gilbert. 4th row; K. Kessler, J. Kurtzman, T. Morris, A. De Vitalis, H. Lentzsch, J. Curran, and Miss Alice Ariel.

Are You Ready - Hep!

"Yeh, Team! Fight, Team, Fight!" and thereby another game is won by the spirit and enthusiasm inspired by our peppy cheer leaders. These fourteen youths, under the direction of Miss Alice Ariel, history teacher, have worked hard and faithfully to give our boys on the field that extra shove that wins the day.

The newly-organized freshman group of five indicates a coming group of cheer leaders second to none.
